

JCC names recreation director

Sidney Fox has joined the Jewish Community Center of Metropolitan Detroit as divisional director of recreational services.

In his position, Fox will oversee the JCC's InLine Hockey Center and other sports and recreation areas.

Prior to coming to the JCC, Fox worked for Suburban Arena Management, where he was the general manager of its ice arena; athletic director at the University of Michigan-Dearborn and Herkimer County Community College in New York and taught health and physical education in the Detroit Public Schools.

He also was athletic coordinator and special events administrator for the city of Pontiac, executive director of the Michigan Amateur Athletic Union and director of athletics at Rosper City and Country School.

He holds a certificate from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Management Institute program and is affiliated with the National Junior College Athletic Association, National Alliance of Two-

Learn decorating tips at store event

Join decorating consultant Jeanine Matlow noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 8, at the Dollar Castle in Farmington, as she shares easy decorating tips for parties, home decorating and gift packages.

Dollar Castle will donate 10 percent of all purchases made noon-4 p.m. to Sweet Dreamzzz of Farmington which provides children and families in Detroit with items necessary for a good night's sleep. Call 478-3242.

Breastfeeding support available

The Oakland County Health Division is sponsoring a breastfeeding support series. Sessions, which are taught by Public Health Nurses, are held at the health division's West Office, 1010 E. West Maple Road, Walled Lake, one block east of Pontiac Trail.

Information covered includes pumping, solving common problems associated with breastfeeding, taking care of mom, growth and development of the breastfeeding infant including: growth spurts, starting solids and weaning.

Information is targeted to participants involved in the first year of breastfeeding. For information or to register, call (248) 926-3341.

Well child clinics give free care

Oakland County Health Division's Child Health Clinics provide free ongoing well care for children from birth to school entry. Families who don't have an HMO or Medicaid may be eligible. Clinics are held at 12 locations throughout Oakland County.

Services include: height and weight, head to toe physical exam, immunizations, vision, hearing and lab testing, growth and developmental screening, and counseling with referrals to physicians and area resources as needed.

An appointment is required. For more information, call the South Oakland office at (248) 424-7066.

Join walk against breast cancer

On Saturday, Oct. 13, the American Cancer Society will host Making Strides Against Breast Cancer, a non-competitive walking event that celebrates breast cancer survivorship and promotes breast health awareness. The walk will be held at Belle Isle Park, with registration beginning at 8:30 am and the 4.7-mile walk beginning at 9:30 am. For more information, please call 1-800-ACS-2345.
