Stakes Sandwich on Seat in Congress

UNIQUE among the candidates who Uran the other day in the Pennsylvania primaries is Dr. Moses Stern of Phihadelphia, candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress in the Third district. Dr. Stearn fled with South Trimble, clerks of the house of representatives, a sworn statement that his expenses in the primaries amounted to 25 cents.

When be read the morning paired by the broad which he cast upon the waters was returned unto him many fold. He frankly confessed that he wanted to get on the public pay roll with a warm seat in congress before the country went bankrupt.

He was a hit worried lest a part of his expenditure may not have been regular! He insisted that he has brived mo one, but admitted that he has brived mo one, but admitted that he did narrhane a small chicken sandwish content of the 15 cents was speal that he has brived mo one, but admitted that he did not been the content stamps, which were used to mail it in minimation papers to the proper active.
