The Rev. John R. Carpenter will preach in the Universalist church next Sunday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Salkowski ask the Enterprise to convey their sincere thanks to the many friends who so generously came to their assistance in their misfortune.

E. A. Allen has opened a shoe repairing shop on Division street in the rooms formerly occupied by Miss Ike's millinery store and is prepared to do all kinds of work in that line.

The F. H. S. plays Milford Saturday, May 11. The Milford team has been playing fast ball this season so a good game is looked for. Game starts at 3:00 o'clock so Milford boys can make train connections. Admission, 15c.

Time to swat the fly
How about the garden of which we dreamed all winter.

Oats are about all in and now test the seed corn and get ready for corn planting.

The Ladies' Union will meet with Mrs. Carlos Steele Thursday afternoon, May 16.

E. K. Gullen is ill. He is under the care of Dr. J. A. Miller and a speedy recovery is confidently expected.

Rev. Gullen delivered the address before the Ministerial association of the Detroit district last Monday.

The Farmington Guild will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Ethel Bade Monday evening. Leave on 7:35 car.

The forests are finally getting on their new spring suits and all nature smiles again after one of the longest, hardest, coldest winters on record.

The town board was over the township last Friday for the purpose of inspecting bridges, culverts, etc. They made the trip in quick time by using Harry McCracken's machine.

The capital of the Pontiac Savings Bank has been increased from $50,000 to $100,000. The institution also has a surplus of $25,000. The bank is having a new building erected which they will occupy about July 1.

After an illness of a year or more and during the past few months being confined to the bed, Peter Crawford passed away Tuesday. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon and the body laid at rest at West Farmington.

The F. H. S. ball team sent down to ignominious defeat the Business Men's ball team on the home diamond last Saturday. The business men simply turned out to give the boys practice and it was very kind of them. All enjoyed the game.

At the Farmington Baptist church Sunday, May 12, B. J. Klump will take for his subject, "Five Mothers." David Connel of Pontiac, one of the best tenor singers in the county, and Jay Klump, baritone soloist of the First Baptist church of Pontiac, will each sing a solo and the two will sing a duet. A fine musical treat is assured to all who wish to attend this service and all are cordially invited.

Among the items in the "increased cost of living" over at Birmingham is the doctor bills. The physicians have clubbed together and raised prices.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Green, living northwest of town, who have been seriously ill for some time, are not improving as their many friends would like to see them and they have the sympathy of the whole community.

For a few months vehicles will be obliged to make a short detour on the way to and from Detroit on Grand River road, but when the work is completed to the Farmington gravel road at the Base Line we shall surely have something to be thankful for and a road of which we can be justly proud.

The agents of the Columbus Oil Co., who "stung" some of our farmers last summer with their kerosene oil and tank scheme are now at work in other parts of the county and are a little better price for both oil and tank than the local dealers asks for better goods.

After 63 years Mrs. Lara J. Finney of Northville and Mrs. Mathew Stoot of Novi again sang together in the Baptist church at Novi, on April 28. Mrs. Finney formerly resided at Novi and side by side with Mrs. Stoot they sang in the old Baptist church at that place just 63 years ago that day, and a remarkable incident is that the present pastor of the church heard them sing on that date so long ago.

Notice

It is earnestly desired that people will attend to their cemetery lots early this year, thereby giving the sexton time to clean the alleys after their work is done. In the past much of the private work has been done immediately before Decoration day, the alleys being left in a littered and unsightly condition at a time when it is especially desirable that everything should be in good order.
