

Five Guys Named Moe: This Ann Arbor band brings its eclectic mix of music to Nardin Park United Methodist Church Sunday, Oct. 14 at 3 p.m. Admission is free.

St. Paul's honors retiring teacher

St. Paul's Lutheran Church and School in Farmington Hills will honor the retirement of Irene Sutter, a kindergarten teacher for 35 years at the school.

The celebration will start with a worship service at 5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 13, followed by a dinner at 7 p.m. at Vasefs.

During her teaching career Mrs. Sutter taught as many as 650 kindergarten students and also coached cheerleading for five years. A native of Troutman, N.C., she attended Appalachian University in Boone, N.C., and earned her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Madonna University with a 2A endorsement in early childhood education. Mrs. Sutter has also taught Sunday School and been a member of the choir and Lutheran Women's Missionary League and was also chosen Lutheran Woman of the Year from her congregation in 1993.

Mrs. Sutter and her husband Elwood have lived in Farmington for 46 years. Their children are, Cheryl Mettler, Gary Sutter and Daniel Sutter, and the late Craig Sutter. They also have eight grandchildren.

Free jazz/swing concert

Five Guys Named Moe will perform swing and jazz on Sunday, Oct. 14, at 3 p.m., the opening concert of the 2001-02 music series at Nardin Park United Methodist Church.

Admission is free. The show will include an electric mix of swing, ranging from old vocal standards to jazz instrumentals, western swing and free-wheeling bo-bop with selections like "Lady Be Good," "San Antonio Rose" and "Choo Choo Ch' Boogie."

Nardin Park is at 29887 W. 11 Mile, west of Middlebelt.

Church sends aid to New York

Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Farmington Hills will send more than $10,000 to aid survivors and families of victims of the terrorist attacks.

Efforts are under way to care for children orphaned by the attack and provide grief and trauma counseling. Unemployment issues will also be addressed. Funds will be distributed through LCMS World Relief, working through local districts and congregations to help provide immediate emergency assistance and on-the-scene counseling.

Church leaders urge community members to generously support this effort.

"Many people have already given very generously," said Pastor Tom Lange. "So many wonderful organizations are at the scene. Our congregation felt strongly that we wanted to send aid to an organization that would help folks with immediate needs."

Checks should be made payable to Prince of Peace church and designated Sept. 11 Attacks. Send to Prince of Peace, 28000 New Market Road, Farmington Hills 48334. This is a tax deductible donation and 100 percent of funds received will be used for relief efforts.
