STEVE YERMAN
BOBBLEHEAD

The Chargers got the first goal but were blanked thereafter by Hawks goalkeeper Dustin Babler.

"We were doing something that we do often," Coach Tim Russell said, "we were playing tentatively."

"We had a lot of opportunities. But we weren't sending the balls through. We were sending them into space, to their keeper or out of bounds."

"But I shared some niceties with the team at halftime and we came out and played better."

"The best part was we had one of those halves where the whole team played well, worked well together."

Alfred Gjakaj got a hat trick plus an assist, Margot Tani scored twice and had an assist, Noah Bander notched one goal and Brett Laird tallied the other. Emery Erickson and Eric White also had assists for the Hawks, now 3-7-1.

"Erickson was a standout at sweeper," Russell said. "He played a great game again. He's had a lot of good games for us this year. He has a knack for being in the right place at the right time."

"He has a knack for knowing when to dribble, when to pass. He cleared the ball out to the feet of our players. He's a big help to us."

Bander missed last week with an injury but appeared only slightly hobbled against Lathrup.

Raiders roll

North Farmington played at Milford for the first time in three years Saturday. They liked it so well they just might go back.

Couch Ron Moteyor's Raiders scored three times in the first half and ended to a 3-0 victory over the Redskins.

It took slightly more than four minutes for North Farmington to break the scoreless tie.

Greg Polansky took a throw-in and Raiders' captain Jeff Shumer flicked the ball off the back of his head down the right sideline.

Andrew Mouraine beat a defender to the ball and shot it into the middle, where Polansky had darted so he could one-time it into the net 4:08 into the game.

Just 1:30 later, Mouraine scored off a cross from the left side by Matt Holland. Mouraine one-touched it in from about five yards out.

With 15:47 left in the half, Mohamed Bachrouche took a pass from Jon Parker on the right side near the top of the penalty box.

Bachrouche dribbled through four players, recovering twice after getting knocked by his knees. Both times he beat the defense back to the ball.

The Milford goalies came out to meet the on-rushing Bachrouche, who surprised him with a soft lob over his head into the net for the score.

"In the second half they mounted a much stronger attack," Moteyor said. "We did not have a shot on net in the second half but we did dominate play at midfield."

Goalkeeper Alex Lubyansky stopped eight shots for North Farmington, three in the first half and five in the second, as the Raiders improved to 8-3-2.

Whalers' start nearly perfect

The Plymouth Whalers proved something last weekend. Three games. Three nights. The opener and the closer in that stretch on the road.

It didn't start well for the Whalers, who played at Sarnia Friday, came home to host Windsor Saturday, then played at Windsor Sunday. In Friday's opener against the Sting, the Whalers got the game-tying goal from Mike Smith 3:35 into the third period.

That sent the game into overtime, which proved no favor to Plymouth — 4:11 into the extra period, Kris Newbury slipped a shot past Whaler goalie Jason Bacashihua to give Sarnia a 3-2 OT win.

Plymouth still gets a point for a tie, but Sarnia earns two points for a win.

The Whalers never led in the game. The Sting opened the scoring with a goal by Juris Stals with just 51 seconds left in the first period. Greg Campbell knotted it for Plymouth with an unassisted goal 3:02 into the second. Five minutes later, Eric Himelfarb regained the lead for Sarnia — which is the way it stayed until Smith's score in the third from Karl Stewart and George Nistas).

Bacashihua had 18 saves in goal for the Whalers.

On Saturday at Compuware Arena, a big game from defenseman James Wisniewski (Canton) carried Plymouth to a 6-2 victory, and on Sunday at Windsor Arena, three third-period goals lifted the Whalers to a 5-2 triumph.

On Saturday, Wisniewski sparked a five-goal second period with a pair of power-play goals scored 86 seconds apart. He also had two assists in the game.

The game was tied after one period. Cole Jarrett scoring on the power play for Plymouth (from Wisniewski).

Smith started the Whalers' five-goal run in the second (from Kris Vernarsky) with another power-play goal at the 8:14 mark, making it 2-1. Tim Sestito made it 3-1 (from Nistas and Smith) at 7:15 before Wisniewski's two goals increased their lead to 5-1.

Nate Krier finished the Whaler scoring (from Wisniewski) at the 15:18 mark of the second. Ryan Donnelly got Windsor's second goal 20 seconds later.

Bacashihua made 31 saves in goal for Plymouth.

Sunday's game was decided in a span of 7:02 of the third period. Tied at 2-2 after two periods, the Whalers got goals from Sestito (his team-leading fourth of the season, from Nistas) at 5:45; from Campbell (from Vernarsky) at 8:39; and from Danny McDonald (from Stewart and David Lifstun) at 12:47.

McDonald's first goal of the game, and season, tied the game at 1-1 13:23 into the first period (Stewart and John Mitchell assisted). Nistas tied it again for the Whalers with a power-play goal 4:26 into the period (from Smith and Robichaud).

Paul Drew turned away 28 shots in goal for Plymouth. Ryan Aschaber also had 29 saves for the Spitfires.
