BAD OPENING.

Impenious Sultor (endeavoring to make himself agreeable to Miss Angela's papa)—What a charming place you have here, Mr. Oldman! Does it go all the way to that grove over there?

Unsympathetic Papa—It does. I. S.—And all the way to that stone wall in the distance on the hill?

U. P.—It does! And it goes all the way to the creek on the south, and all the way to the state road on the north; but, Mr. Youngman, it does not go with my daughter Angela!

Wanted—Good farm homes near Detroit, who will take for the summer children of poor working mothers. For particulars address the Michigan Children's Home society, 1207 Chamber of Commerce, Detroit.

Obituary

George W. Tolman was born in the township of Farmington March 14, 1860, having spent nearly all his life on the farm that his grandfather and father took up in 1824. He was married, Sept. 16, 1891, to Elva Wixom. To this union three children were born, two girls, and one boy, two having died in infancy. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Anna, and a host of friends and relatives who mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband, father and neighbor, one that was always ready to help in time of need. He is gone but not forgotten.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the many neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved husband and father, George W. Tolman; also for the beautiful floral tributes and to Rev. Loomis for his kind and true words.—Mrs. Elva S. Tolman, Mr. and Mrs. Starr W. Graham.
