

Shamrocks top Jackets for key win

Redford Catholic Central needed to win its last three games if it hoped to avoid missing postseason play for the first time since 1994. The Shamrocks have two down and one to go. It's 3-17. Saturday, over Detroit Country Day set up a must-win game for CC at Dearborn Fordson Friday.

FOOTBALL

The math is simple. If the Shamrocks (5-3) win, they return to the playoffs. A loss and they stay home.

CC outscored DCD in the second half, 20-3, to keep its hopes alive.

Derrick Brooks scored on a 5-yard run in the third quarter to give the Shamrocks a 21-17 lead after the third of four extra points by Jason Gingell.

CC scored two more times in the fourth to open the lead on a 14-yard pass from Tom Jakacki to Steve Wasil and a Ryan Rogowski 6-yard run with 2:16 left.

The Yellow Jackets (5-3) scored first as Brandon Horn caught a 16-yard TD pass from Ernie Jackson.

The Shamrocks came right back at the beginning of the second quarter with Tom Michaelson catching a 52-yard pass from Jakacki to tie the game at 7-7.

Country Day took a lead late in the half, but CC's Kevin McKee, who hadn't handled a kickoff all year, made a 93-yard TD return to tie it at 14.

CCD took a 17-14 lead in the third on Donald Cumming's 32-yard field goal.

Jakacki was 6-for-8 passing for 148 yards. Ryan Wrobleki caught four passes for 82 yards, and Mike Bannasak carried 13 times for 62 yards.

Rogowski had 17 tackles to lead the defense; Dan Moore had 10. Wrobleki and Landon Langham also had interceptions.

Hawks reach .500 with 7th WLAA win

BOYS GOLF

Maybe Ayanna Richmond should consider a career in medicine.

Ever since she returned to the starting lineup, Farmington Harrison's girls basketball team has gotten well.

The Hawks started slowly. Tuesday night, scoring just five points in the first period. But that's expected of them. They had a good first half.

"But in the third quarter they quit rebounding. And, when we don't rebound, we can't get it out to the guards."

"When we did get it out to the guards, they didn't make good decisions, either shooting or putting it in the glass." The Hawks and coaches used all kinds of easy chip shots around the basket.

"We played three good teams in row: Northville, Walled Lake Central and Walled Lake Western. In all these games, if they follow through, they win all these games."

Lowe said his girls' lagged giving his team time off last week and, apparently, from if any of the players came in to shoot and stay sharp.

"It showed," he said. "MERCY 55, BISHOP BORGESS 50: A fourth quarter Tuesday enabled Farmington Hills Mercy to overcome a 42-34 deficit and defeat host Redford Bishop Borgess in a Catholic League contest.

The Maroons outscored the Spartans over the final eight minutes, 24-12.

Megan Galliglio played her best game of the year to lead Mercy, scoring 12 points and grabbing 14 rebounds.

Anna Rosequist contributed 12 points and eight rebounds. Alexandra Marshall seven points and four steals. Barb Mazzuca seven points and eight rebounds.

The Maroons are 4-5 in the Central Division and 8-7 overall. Natasha Smith scored 22 points, LiAnn Charles 16 and Tara Charles 10 for the Spartans (0-9).

BASKETBALL

Western (6-2, 9-5) was led by Lauren Talbot, who scored nine points.

"We played a very good team," Lowe said. "Understand that this is a Farmington team that has made progress."

The Falcons played hard but that's expected of them. They had a good first half.

"But in the third quarter they quit rebounding. And, when we don't rebound, we can't get it out to the guards."

MERCY 55, BISHOP BORGESS 50: A fourth quarter Tuesday enabled Farmington Hills Mercy to overcome a 42-34 deficit and defeat host Redford Bishop Borgess in a Catholic League contest.

The Maroons outscored the Spartans over the final eight minutes, 24-12.

Megan Galliglio played her best game of the year to lead Mercy, scoring 12 points and grabbing 14 rebounds.

Anna Rosequist contributed 12 points and eight rebounds. Alexandra Marshall seven points and four steals. Barb Mazzuca seven points and eight rebounds.

The Maroons are 4-5 in the Central Division and 8-7 overall. Natasha Smith scored 22 points, LiAnn Charles 16 and Tara Charles 10 for the Spartans (0-9).

"To their credit, Borgess played a great game," Mercy coach Kristin Wright-Gulbin said. "We were down in the first half (29-20). Fortunately, we were able to pick it up in the second half and regain those nine points and come out with a win, but it wasn't our best performance."

"But we won, I can't be too upset. We had to do something right to get the win."

Mercy was 19-of-31 shooting free throws, including 8-of-12 in the fourth quarter. The Maroons shot just 26 percent from the floor.

Borgess was 12-of-20 at the line and had two players foul out. Tara Charles had three fouls and didn't play in the fourth quarter.

CHURCHILL 47, N. FARMINGTON 47: A 13-point advantage in the second quarter Tuesday helped the Chargers overcome a four-point deficit in the other three and to defeat the host Raiders.

Churchill used a 19-6 second quarter to take a 29-17 halftime lead. North

Farmington had a 30-27 edge in the second half.

Kelly Verellen scored 17 points, which included five three-point field goals, to lead the Chargers (3-5, 8-8). Deanna DeRoo contributed 15 and Sallie Kurko added nine.

"But we won, I can't be too upset. We had to do something right to get the win."

Mercy was 19-of-31 shooting free throws, including 8-of-12 in the fourth quarter. The Maroons shot just 26 percent from the floor.

Borgess was 12-of-20 at the line and had two players foul out. Tara Charles had three fouls and didn't play in the fourth quarter.

"To their credit, Borgess played a great game we've played in a long time," Raiders coach Tim Carlson said. "We had been playing well defensive, when we did do that, we're very average."

"They gave them too many open shots. They were 8-of-12 from three-point range. We just didn't defend it well; we didn't have a hand in the face."

"That's great shooting but we need to defend that better. That really was the difference. They made eight and we didn't make any."
