

Garden club plans holiday table show

The Farmington Garden Club will host its second annual Holiday Table event on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, at the Spicer House in Heritage Park.

At least 15 tables festively decorated with themes reflective of winter holidays including Christmas, New Year's, Hanukkah and Kwanzaa, will be on display.

"Last year was our first year and it was so successful we are adding a gala preview event the night before," said Jan Dolan, chairwoman.

Proceeds from the Friday night gala will benefit the Farmington Goodfellows. Admission will be $25 per ticket, which admits two guests. The event is scheduled from 6:30-8:30 p.m.

"The concern is for Farmington Goodfellows now with a lot of money going to the relief effort in New York," Dolan said.

"We have a lot of different tables, I'd say at least 15. I did Kwanzaa (theme) last year. This year I'm going to possibly do (table) on the Muslim holiday. Let's see more Eastern themes."

A boutique also will be run both days. It will feature special tree ornaments, wreaths and flags for sale.

On Saturday, Dec. 1, admission to the show is $5. Hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"It's a chance for visitors to get ideas for table decorations," Dolan said. "A lot of people never get over to the visitor's center.

And this will help get them ready for the holidays."

The Farmington Garden Club is a member of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan. For more information, call Jan Hunt at (248) 553-0996.
