Volunteers Help Enrich Many Lives

The Oakland County Volunteer Bureau's "Expanding Their World" program, devoted to enriching the lives of culturally, economically, and racially deprived adults and children in Oakland County and to developing friendship with them, needs adults, college students, and teen-agers to carry out the program.

Although just being sincerely interested in gaining insight into the lives of those who are confined to a world alone, the desire to simply make new friends will add immeasurably to improving social welfare conditions.

Other specific needs are for case worker aides, tutors in junior and senior high school subjects, sports enthusiasts, musical talents, good grooming instructors and classroom aides.

There are many more opportunities for volunteers in this program. For further information, call the Oakland County Volunteer Bureau, a division of United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit in Birmingham, at 642-7272.

8 Have Rugged Adventures

Eight senior Scouts and Explorers from Farmington are completing an exciting stay at the Philmont Scout Ranch and Explorer Base in Cimarron, N.M.

The boys are George Annis, 33980 Breabury Ridge; Richard Harding, 32040 Valleyview; Al Johnson, 29275 Powers Rd.; John and Tom Kempf, 24900 Ivywood Dr.; Leverage Highfield, 29538 Fox Grove; and James Nutball, 23660 Beacon Dr.

During their stay at the 137,000-acre ranch, the local Scouts have planned for gold, helped excavate pre-historic Indian dwellings, toured ruins of old gold-mining operations and learned mountaineering, techniques of mountain camping and horseback riding.

To enjoy this life of rugged adventure, the boys must be at least 14 years old and strong enough to hike for 10 days with a 30-pound pack over rough mountain trails.
