No Vets In Sight As Lions Go Into Drills

The Detroit Lions operated their 1805s drills Thursday with no veterants in sight.

It had been planned to brings in four vete obtained in girls, and four responsible to the section of t and $1,350,000 the following.

The players have sought a yearly contribution of $5,000,-000 into the penalon grabbag.

The owners have ead that "we have gone as far as we can."

One person, close to the football scene, visions the NFL owners finally "giving in" and the fans being tagged with increases in ticket prices to make up the difference.

"The owners, toogh as they sound, won't lose anything; just wait and see," the source declared.

IT ALSO was pointed out that the NFL has a $20 million television package at stake and if there are no games... or at least none with veterans ... the CBS network probably won't fork across any money. While the NFL haggled, the rival American League players agreed to a new pact with their bosses. It included a pension like.

Eight games without a victory, , but at least No. 8 wasn't a defeat for the Derivot Cougars, . After dropping seven in row, the Cougars settled for a scoreless tie with Kansars City before a scanty gathera to Tiger Stadium Wednesday nieht.

Senior Circuit Agrees On Division Split

The National League, like the American, will be split into wo divisions next season when each adds two more cities. The senior circuit has agreed to divide into a six-team loop made up as follows: New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis, Montreal in one. The other will have San Francisco, Loo Angeles, Houston, Cincinnati, Atlanta and San Diego.

Francisco, Los Angeles, Houston, Cincinnai, Atlanta and San Diego.

The American will be broken up with Detroit, Boston, Editinore, Cleveland, Washington and New York in one section, Chicago, Minnesota, California, Owlian & Hother, Owner Arthur Allyn of the Chicago White Sox doesn't like American League breakdown and is protesting to the American League breakdown and is protesting to the Chicago White Sox doesn't like American League divisions are unbalanced.

Each team will play 162 games with a best-of-live playoff to decide the league champ. The American League earlier had wanted only 154 games, likely the players' association will acream over the 162-game schedule.

HANK BAUER of the Baltimore Orioles became the third orion seages major of the season to get bounced. He followed Gene Mauch of the Phillies and Grady Hatton of Houston to the stdellines.

The Orioles ma se their more out of the lead at the All-Star break, Bauer had managed the Birds since 1994 and led them to one pennant.
