Eagle from page D3

Their hunting and scavenging activities, which often occur near-free rivers, dams, cooling ponds at power plants, road kill locations and ice fishing sites, provide an excellent opportunity to view and count wintering eagles.

To report sightings, complete the form on the DNR Web site at www.michigandnr.com (link to Wildlife Resources) and then to Wildlife Observations or send in a postcard no later than Feb. 1,

2002. Send postcards to: Winter Bald Eagle Survey, Natural Heritage Program, Department of Natural Resources, Box 80180, Lansing, MI 48908-7680. For information on how you can assist other projects supported by this Fund, visit the DNR Web site. # Victory from page D1

With the loss, Stevenson dropped to 1-1-1 in the WLAA, and 3-2-1 overall.

FARMINGTON UNIFIED 8, NORTHVILLE/NOVI 2: The Flyers were led by Brad Horaghty and Matt Lee, who each scored two goals, in the victory Dec. 15 at the Novi Ice Arena.

Farmington also got goals from Brett Ramsay, Keith Hay (two assists), Mike Hand, and Brett Laird. Jeff Tosiain added three assists.

The Flyers jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first period behind on goals by Ramsay, Lee and Horaghty. Farmington, which outshot Northville/Novi 44-30, got strong goaltending from Aaron Allor.

CRANBROOK-KINGSWOOD 3, CHURCHILL 1: Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook-Kingwood scored the first two goals in a victory over Livonia Churchill Friday in a Michigan Interscholastic Hockey League Showcase game at the Trenton Ice Arena.

Churchill's Matt Krug scored at the 14:10 mark of the first period to cut the lead to 2-1, but Cranbrook's Matt Fritz increased the lead with a goal early in the second. Aaron Ziem assisted on Krug's goal.

Churchill coach Pete Mazzoni said his team played better in the third period, but just couldn't get anything past Cranbrook goalie Andy Chima.

"We were a step slow in the first period, but we picked it up in the second period, but we picked it up in the second. And in the third, I think we carried the play. We had our chances, but we just couldn't score," Mazzoni said.

Do you know a Farmington school student who has turned his or her life around?

Students age 7 - 12, who have made positive changes in their lives will be honored at a luncheon in Farmington Hills Manor on March 5, 2002.

Students will be judged on the basis of significant improvements in a broad range of areas—from behavior to school work to community service.

Nomination forms are available in all Farmington Middle and High Schools and must be submitted by Friday, December 14, 2001.

The program is sponsored by Farmington Public Schools, Farmington Observer, Farmington Public Safety Department and the Farmington Hills Police Department.

If your company would like to sponsor this new program of encouragement, call Cathy Young,
