The second Prough goal came on a power-play.

Negaunee's Dan Woodruff countered with a short-handed goal, but CC made it a two-goal cushion with five minutes remaining in the period on Brett Regulecki's goal from Harrison Niemann and Billy Burns.

The Shamrocks upped their lead to 4-1 in the second period on Andrew Egger's goal from Eric Reinhardt and Sean O'Malley.

Matt Larson then cut the deficit to 4-2 with three minutes to go in the second period, and Trevor Morrison's goal put CC on the hot seat midway through the final period.

But Blanchard (23 saves) helped preserve the win.

In Friday's win over Marquette, CC broke open a tight game with three unanswered goals in the final period.

Perkovich scored on a power-play from Prough and Steve Nelson to make it 3-1 at 1:30. Only a minute later, Eric Glosa scored from Egger and Mike Ryan.

Ryan put it away with a goal from Nelson and Prough with 1:10 remaining.
