Hills' Longacre House offers classes

The Kelly-Kirby Pinnocchio Method begins Jan. 19 at the Longacre House in Farmington Hills. Boys and girls ages 5-7 will be introduced to music and piano with an approach that appeals to the young child's mind and imagination.

The children are taught ear training and note recognition which is then applied to the piano.

The classes are taught by Susan Nuckolls who holds a piano degree from the Detroit Institute of Musical Art, a former affiliate of the University of Detroit.

She also holds a Kelly-Kirby

Kindergarten Piano Degree as well as having studied extensively with the noted Mischa Kottler.

She performs professionally, teaches extensively and has produced many award-winning students.

For information call (248) 477-8404 or (248) 474-9105.

ASSISTED LIVING

at

Regent Street Inc.

of West Bloomfield

WHY SETTLE FOR THE ORDINARY?

REGENT STREET provides extraordinary assisted living for older adults. Everything at Regent Street has been designed and planned for the care, comfort and safety of each resident. Nurses are on duty, on site, twenty four hours a day, seven days a week. Residents not only know the security of having medical personnel in the building but most importantly, Regent Street offers a level of medical management that is unique.

With only forty-seven assisted living accommodations and fourteen in a secured memory impaired wing everyone is assured of the personal attention they require and deserve. All accommodations feature private bathrooms with walk-in showers. There are walk-in bathtubs for those who prefer a tub bath. Activities are planned for seven days a week. Transportation is available for appointments and social events.

You don't have to settle for the ordinary.
