The Eagles six of eight.
 "Even though it's not really reflected in the score, this was definitely the game we had the most intensity," Farmington coach Steve Korpusik said.
 "There are some guys who play a lot that I don't even notice. This time I noticed those guys for positive reasons."
 "We just need to be able to score more consistently. Once we overcome that hurdle, we can be more competitive."

"Defensively, we're doing a decent job, and it was our best rebounding game all year. We have some positives we can pull out of this."

"I really think our guys are doing their best to do everything we need them to do. I felt like we had a good commitment from a lot of guys tonight."
