Flyers earn 7-2 win over Chiefs

Western on Friday.

RCC crushes Cranes

Redford Catholic Central coach Todd Johnson hinted that "attitude corrections during practice and at meetings" might have led to his team's 6-1 hockey victory Friday night at Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook.

"Cranbrook is the two-time defending Division III state champ," Johnson said, "but they're a young team this year."

Brett Laird also scored for the Flyers, who led 3-0 after one period and 6-1 after two. "They jumped on us early and we never recovered," Canton coach Dan Abraham said. "We outshot them, 26-21; it's just that their shots went in."

The Chiefs got goals from Mike Carson and David Comiskey.

Aaron Allor was in goal for Farmington Unified. Charles Kemp started in the net for Canton but was replaced midway through the third period. The Flyers played host to Livonia Franklin on Saturday and will play at Walled Lake goal.

The Shamrocks (7-5-1) closed out the game with a single goal by Brandon Naurato. Steve Nelson had three assists. CC goalie John Garza faced only 11 shots on goal.

Seniors ski at reduced rates on Michigan slopes

As the largest segment of our population—the Baby Boomers—look ahead toward retirement, ski areas across Michigan want senior citizens to include skiing as one of their major recreational activities. Ski areas and resorts recognize seniors as a burgeoning group with disposable income, and more time than ever before before baby boomers will continue to embrace physical fitness as they age, making the term “senior citizens” take on a whole new meaning. “We want them to ski, not fire to warmer climates,” says Steve Kershner, president of the Michigan Ski Industries Association and director of skiing for Shanty Creek in Bellaire. Nearly all facilities welcome senior citizens as young as 50 with outstanding discounts and exciting programs.

At Alpine Valley in White Lake, seniors 65 and up ski for just $13 during midweek daytime sessions, holidays included. Seniors 60s who belong to the over the hill gun ski free with membership and 1.0 card. (248-857-2180)

Apple Mountain in Freeland offers $5 lift tickets to seniors 65+, everyday. (989-781-0170)

At Big Powderhorn in Bessemer in the Upper Peninsula, seniors 65 and over pay $17 per lift ticket. (906-922-3100)

Bitterroot of Otsego offers $2 off any rate for seniors, 60+. (616-694-2820).

Blackhawk Ski Resort of Bessemer lets seniors, 65+, pay child rates everyday and seniors 62 and older can purchase a season pass for $165. (906-222-5115)

At Boyne Mountain in Boyne Falls and Boyne Highlands in Harbor Springs, lift tickets are discounted 25 percent off regular rates for seniors 65+. (1-800-GO BOYNE)

At Cadillac, Catherine Peaks Ski and Golf Resort, seniors 65+ ski for $20 midweek and $25 on weekends and holidays. Ski rental packages for seniors are $20 everyday. (212-662-3000)

Cannonburg Ski Area in Cannonburg allows anyone 70 years and older to ski free. (816-874-6711)

Cross Country Ski Headquarters in Roomhouse offers an entire Cross Country and Snowshoe Silver Star week. For 2002, it's Jan. 21 through 25, Monday through Friday. During these dates, seniors 55 and older get their cross-country ski and snowshoe pass on the house and a free chance to try some cross-country skiing and snowshoeing from their demo program. (1-800-832-2883)

At Crystal Mountain in Thompsonville, seniors 65+ and older get 50 percent off day lift tickets, cross-country trail passes, rental equipment, sunset skiing and group lessons. (800-VOLVO-MTN)

At The Homestead in Glen Arbor, senior citizens 62+ ski free. (800-678-4111)

Indian Lake State Park offers $5 off full price lift tickets to seniors. (906-865-0557)

“With all the discounts offered to senior citizens, there is really no excuse for staying indoors,” Kershner says. He encourages everyone, regardless of age or ability, to hit the slopes and trails. “Come out and enjoy Michigan’s winter wonderland!”
