DePorres was simply too quick and too skilled in the backcourt, forcing the Shamrocks to play a cat-and-mouse game.

"Their game plan is our strength." DePorres coach Durand Shapherd said. "And I think our legs prevailed because we feel we can run with any-body. CC does it (fast break) from start to finish. We like to run to finish. We like to run to hut not for the eating game. We ry to pick our spots.

"We played great and we were prepared properly for this game as far an stopping their fast break. We did a great job sprinting back in defensive transition and locating their three-point shooters."

DePorres shot 51.7 percent from the field (29-of-56) and committed just 11 turnovers. Starting point guard Billy Swain added 10 points, will backup guard Gordon Ziegler also tallied 10. The third starter at guard, Radnyl Richardson, secored eight to give the 6-foot Cotton more than ample sup-
