Schooleraft then went on a mini 6-0 run capped by a short jumper from Harris.

Vincennes would not get any closer than five. A dunk by Holland with 1:45 to play made it 65-60, but Javon Clark scored on a layup with 1:35 to go to put it away.

"Schooleraft is a good team, they play good defense and we just didn't shoot the ball well enough," said Vincennes coach Dan Sparks, whose team bowed out at 21-11 overall. "We had chances, it just didn't work out. Our inside people couldn't get the job done inside."

Schooleraft outrebounded Vincennes, 48-41, as Julius Austin, Barrett, Moton-Spruill and Williams snared seven boards cach.

SC women reach District H finals

If anyone doubted the game would be like this, they didn't study their recent history. Schoolcraft Collided for the third time this season in an NJCAR Region 12 District H semifinal Friday at Owens Tech. The first time these toams played, Owens wo by two; the importance of these games anothing compared to Friday's, a victory would allow one was nothing compared to Friday's, a victory would allow one team to continue its season. At the half, the team of choices seemed to be Owens, which had a 33-23 lead.

But the Lady Occlots turned it on in the second half, outsooring the Lady Express 43-31 to ecape with a 68-64 triumph.

The win hoosted SCs record to 26-4 and put the Occlots into Saturday night's final against the Mott CC-Lakeland CC winer. Owens Tech finishes at 22-11.
