Cub Scouts hold Pinewood Derby

Cub Scout Pack #179 of Farmington Hills held their annual Pinewood Derby on January 17. Fifty-four boys raced their hand-made cars in four different Cub Scout Den categories.

First, second and third place trophies were awarded within each category, with a run-off race at the end.

The overall trophies were presented at the February Blue and Gold banquet with Nick Williams in first place, Matt Prosniewski, second place and Eric Larsen, third place. Kevin Wilman received the Best Design award.

Through generous donations from General Motors and Ford Motor Company, each participant took home a prize bag with posters, die-cast cars and auto racing trinkets. Door prizes were also awarded throughout the evening.

Pack 323 of Wixom received special recognition for facilitating the race and the use of their computerized track.
