Understanding Our Problems
It is very difficult, if not impossible, to understand how God responds to various situations. God is love, and we know that He wants us to always do good and be the best that we can be. However, it is so difficult at times to understand why we are burdened with problems. Although we know that God answers prayer, sometimes we pray diligently for something that doesn't turn out like we think it should. During such times, we have to remember that God's ways are not always our ways, and that God's ways are always to perfection. "Thy will be done" is for our edification, and when we accept and understand that God always does what is best for His people, we can have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Without problems, we surely wouldn't fully appreciate our blessings, and for those who trust and believe in our Lord, their blessings far outnumber their problems. In the Bible, our Lord tells us that in this world we will have tribulation, but we should be of good cheer, because He has overcome the world (John 16:33).
Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.
K.J.V. Psalm 34:19
