Teen bowler achieves major feat

I had written about Scott Clemons a few years ago when he shot a 299 at the tender age of

Now that he is almost grown up and all of 16, he was henored at Westland Bowl for delivering a storling performance with a 300/812 cembination Dec. 9, 2001, in the Westland Saturday Coca Cola Youth Majors league.

On hand for

On hand for the festivities, were Westland Mayor Sandy Cicirelli, YABA Unit Director Norm Kluska of Westland, and the officers of the Wayne Westland Metro Bowling Association, including president Charlie Organ, Nick Witkowski, Danny Altizer and John Reina. On hand was Tri-City Ladies President Pat Russell, youth coach Ronane, and yours truly, representing the media and the Greater Detroit Bowling Association.

tion. Kluska presented two rings to Scott, each one representing the 300 and the 800 series.

Mayor Cicirelli presented a certificate of achievement in recognition of the feat.

tion of the feat.

And Scott was a fine young gentleman the way he handled being in the spotlight.

His parents, Melba and Clyde, deserve a lot of credit for bringing up a fine young man, who appears headed in the right direction.

Scotté average is up to 196 and climbing. He also rolled a 300 game recently in practice, but that one doesn't count.
There will likely be much more from Scott Clemons in the future.

The story of Peggy Satko is really a love story.
The passing if Marguerite Peggy Satko last week came as a shock to her many friends and relatives.

a shock to ner man, relatives. Her husband, Stan, a retired police officer, had preceded her in death only three weeks earlier. She had been a long-time resi-dent of Garden City and was the dent of Garden City and was an vice-president of the Detroit

Women's Bowling Association (DWBA), an organization which she had devoted the past 30 years of her life to serving.
Actually, Peggy followed in the flootistops of her mother, the late Marguerite Higgins, who had served as a DWBA official from the 1930s through the '60s.
So between mother and daughter, they had served the Detroit area women bowlers over a span of eight decades.

DWBA President Dorothy Thompson said: "When she was first elected, I referred to her as the President of Vice."

"Peggy had a great sense of humor and went along with the loke"

Always a friendly and cordial lady, daughter Sally calls her "the strongest and kindest person I ever knew."

I ever knew."

Among the many prizes and accolades, the one she prized most was Bowling Woman of the Year award from the John P. Gavie Momorial Tournament, which was one of the many annual events that she had given her time and energy to help.

She is survived by two sisters, four children and seven grandchildren.

four children and seven children.
It was a blessing that she and Stan were able to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary recently. Peggy and Stan had all those loving years together, she loved her bowling and the DWBA along with her many friends and family prombers.

She is gone but all that leve lingers on forever.

•Len Zundel loves to bowl, and he loved it all the more last week when he rolled his first 300 game at Mayflower Lanes in the Monday Seniors League.

All the senior guys and gals are amazing, and Len, at age 70, is carrying averages of 194, 194 and 199 in his three different leagues. He will receive a gold 300 ring, a 300 jacket from Mayflower Lanes and an American Bowling Congress watch for 120 pins over average. Also an avid softball player, Len plays each year in the Livonia senior leagues.

So now we have two perfect game stories this week, one by a 16-year-old and the other by a 70-year-old.

year-old.

It just goes to show that there are no age barriers in bowling.

*At 2 p.m. Saturday, April 13,

AX television will Bowling Bonanza, a local bowling show.
(See your local listings for the channel number.)

This is one of the most successful bowling shows to hit the scene in recent years.

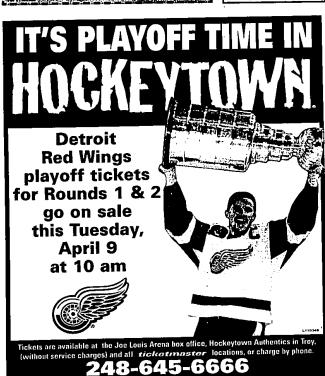

In recent years.

And the worst news yet — I will be on camera and introduced to the audience. It occurred during the taping recently at Drakeshire Lanes in Farmington Hills.

The show is quite entertaining
