

Girls say man driving red Jeep exposed himself

Two girls, ages 10 and 11, told police that while they were waiting for the school bus around 7:45 a.m. Wednesday at Ford and Eight Mile, a man exposed himself to them and then took off.

They said the red Jeep pulled into the nearby car wash. The man got out of the vehicle and examined a car that was for sale. From about 20 feet away, he asked the girls if they knew the car's owner. They told him they didn't. He then dropped his pants and exposed himself, got back in the Jeep and left.
