Pride and Humility
The dictionary defines pride as proper and justified self-respect and a proper sense of personal dignity and worth. Everyone should take pride in their work, their family, their country and their heritage. It is also good to take pride in things such as our personal appearance. When we take pride in all of the good things that our Lord has given us, we tend to take better care of them. However, we must be careful to have pride and self-respect without arrogance or superiority. Children who are proud of their parents and respect them will try to be better children and do what is pleasing to their parents. As adults, we should always try to do what is pleasing in God's eyes. The Bible tells us that God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble (James 4:6). We should try to temper our pride with humility and not have an exaggerated opinion of ourselves. The best way to exude pride without arrogance is to try to be the best we can be. People who exalt themselves are usually esteemed less by others, and those who humble themselves are often more admired.
Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment.
N.I.V. Romans 12:3
