Soccer from page D1

"Our defense has also been phenomenal, drastically limiting our opponents' chances.
"The only goal we have allowed was the result of an indvertent handball. Though I have often credited our defenders with this success, it has truly been the result of team defense.
"Offensively. Nicole Adena again caused the Western defense a great deal of trouble. She very nearly put two goals in, but was unlucky."

FRANKLIN 2. FARMINGTON 1: Livorila Franklin ratiled for two gods in the second half Menday to defeat visiting Famigan, 2-1.

Joyce Rose scored for the Falcons (2-3), and Renee Farrell accounted for both gods for the Patriots (5-2).

In the first minute of the second half, Farrell dribbled down the wing, beat three Farmington players and fired the tying shot.

shot. She got her second goal midway in the Sho got her second goal interest in the half, scoring from "an impossible position on the goot line," according to Faccons coach Steve Montgomery. The shot went between the near post and the goal-went between the near post and the goal-keeper.

Once they scored the second goal, they took No. 10 (Fairell) and put her back on defense, and they protected that read. Montgeners soid, adding Famington had 24 total shots and Franklin four.
In the first half, we definitely outplet them. As they started doing better and better, their momentum built up.
When they got the first goal, they were fired up and into the game even more. When they got the Gras goal, they were firing high and stepped up their game.

rany were right night and stepped up their game.

"We kept being patient and waiting to score, because we had scoring opportunities and dirin't put the ball in the net.

"(The Patriots) kept themselves in the game by playing hard and keeping us under pressure. It's a tough loss for us, but we've got more games to think

The Falcons will be at North Farmingtan with a chance to win the public school city championship Friday night. —CHURCHILL 3, HARRISON O: Livonia

Churchill (3-1-1, 2-0) broke away from a scoreloss halftime deadlack for three second-half goals Monday in a Western Lakes Activities Association Western Division win at Farmington Harrison (3-3-1, 0-sics win at Farmington Harrison (3-31, 0-2).

Asaghan Trainor had one goal and two assists for Churchill, while Sarah Leary and Deanna beñoc also added goals.

Freshman goalkeeper Laura Jetke faced just one shot on goal on mute to ther second shutout of the year.

Despite the loas, Harrison coach Stocy Large-Purata said, "I think it's the best game we've played so far. We played a very solid game.

"We keep improving every game, and that was one of our team goals. We've been doing really well with that."

The Howks lost their starting goallo, Jakki Waldecker to an Injury (bruisod thigh) with 24 minutes left in the game and the score still 1-0.

Waldecker has been averaging 15 to 30 saves per game and had 16 before being hurt Monday.

Arianna Sundick played the rest of the game in goal for Harrison, and did a nice job for being thrown in there cold, Lange-Punzal said.

HARRISON 1, BERKLEY 0: Freshman Stocy Petrykos Intercepted a pass back to the Berkey goale and scored an unasisted goal with 14 minutes left in the second half Saturday to give the host Hawks the non-league victory.

"Her second effort really paid off; that Hewks the non-league victory.

"Her second effort really paid off; that was all Staccy." Lange-Punzel sald.

"We changed our setup right before the game and did a great job. We had a the game and did a great job. We had a defense-minded satup.

"I'm really pleased at how this team is coming together. We're making an effort and improving."

Berkley, which had a 10-4 advantage

In shots, outplayed Harrison in the first half, but Waldecker kept the Hawks in the game "by making same big saves when we needed them." Lange-Punzol when we needed them, "Lange-Punzol said.

"In the second half, we put good offen-sive pressure on them and had some scoring chances. We just need to capital-ize on our chances."
"LADYWOOD 1, MERCY O: Lindsay

Rowe scored from Danica Rodriguez three minutes into the second half Tues-day to give host Luonia Ladywood (3-12, 21-2) the Catholic League Central Divi-eion triumph over Farmington Hills Mercy eion triumpt (2-3-1, 2-3).

Goalkeeper Stefani Szczechowski, with defensive help from swoper Suc Chris-lenson, posted the shutout. She made 'flye saves.

"Sue (Christenson) controlled the back and contributed to our offense." Ledy-

Observer Classifieds selil

Our Price Guarantee:

Call (800) 579-SELL

Softball from page D1

wood coech Jill Logadon sold.
MERCY 1, QROVES 1: The Mailins scorad 'a beautiful goal off a corner kick, according to coech rania Macloce, to force a draw with host Dirmingham Groves Schuldey, "Angle Trudeau toek the corner and Jassica Greeney came running in and put a header into the upper corner," Macloce sold. "We played really lough the test of the second holf."
Groves scored first off a deflocted

Mercy won the championship of its own tournament Saturday, defeating White Lake Lakeland in the final, 1-0.
Megan Fediuk pitched a two hitter and struck out 10. Del Corvo had the game-winning hit, an RBI single. Van Cleave singled and scored the run. One of Mercy's five hits was a double by Anna Schneider.
In the semifinals, Frantz scattered six hits and walked one as the Mariins blanked Troy, 5-0. She struck out three.

two hits.
Del Corvo had a pair of basesloaded singles for five RBI against Farmington. Schneider had two hits and three RBI, and Tracey batted in a pair of runs.
CHURCHILL 3, HARRISON O: Senlor
Rephan Missi tossed a non-little Monday as Unonia Churchill (7-0, 2-0) downed best Farmingen Hartison (26, 6-2) in a as Livenia Churchiii (7-0, 2-0) downed heast Farmington Herrison (2-6, 0-2) in a WLAA Western Division game. Mislak struck out 10, walked one and second on a passed ball, took third on a stolen base and scored on another stolen base and scored on another passed ball.

Ashley Crawley had an RBI double in the third and Natalle Krieger added an RBI groundout in the same inning.

Kristin Schools pitched a solid game for the Hawks, allowing just three hits and four waisa over seven innings while straig out eight.

GANE POSTPONED: The Farmington North Farmington soliball game was postponed Monday and will be played as part of a doubleheader Friday, May 10, at Farmington.

Visit our website at rw.homedepot.com

handise prices may vary after 4/28/2002 If there are market v

Troy (248) 589-3348 USca ($10) 728-1500 W. Bloomfield (248) 865-7590

: Prices in this ad may vary at time of purchase. We adjust our prices daily to the i