Broe Choir sings in Royal Oak

The Broe Tabernacle Therapeutic Choir of Farmington Hills will perform 6-8 p.m. Tuesday, May 21, at The Churchill Center, 707 Girard, in Royal Oak. The Broe Choir is comprised of individuals recovering for traumatic brain injuries.

Project Protection is the evening's theme which will include educational lectures to deter teen drinking/driving during this prom and graduation season.

This free night of entertainment, education and rofreshments is open to the public. For more information call Len McCulloch at (248) 474-2763.

Temple members share insight on revitalization

Three members of the Birmingham Temple in Farmington Hills who have done essential work in the areas of improving schools, neighborhood and individual lives, will share their insight into what it might take to revitalize Detroit at 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 29 at the Tomple.

Amy Good is the executive director of Alternatives for Girls, a shelter aimed at those people not helped by traditional welfare and homeless ussistance. Alternatives for Girls recently received a grant and national recognition from Oprah Winfrey for its work.

Doug Ross, former candidate for govern of Michigan, is a founder and principal of University Preparatory Academy, a charter school in the heart of Detroit.

Steven Tobocman is the founder and current executive director of Community Legal Resources, a program of Michigan Logal Services to redevelop and re-invigorate Detroit neighborhoods.

The event is free and open to the public. For questions, contact Rabbi Adam Chalom at (248) 477-1410.

FARMINGTON CLUB CIRCUIT

SUBURBAN WOMEN

Suburban Republican Women's Club will meet at 11 a.m. Thursday, May 23, at Pick-A-Bone Restaurant in Livonia. The speaker will be Susan Tully, field representative for the Federation of American Immigration Reform.

RETIRED PERSONS
The National Association of Retired Persons will host a Senior Survival Workshop featuring estate planning attorney, Renald Benezkowski, at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, May 30, at Ponderosa Steak House, 23:550 W. 10 Alie in Farmington Hills. Call 1-888-693-3683 for complimentary lunch.

FARMINATION GENERALOGICAL

The Farmington Generalogical Society will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday, May 21 at the downtown Farmington Library. Personal history consultant Donna Ellis will discuss Preserving Your History.

ENGAGEMENTS

RICE-SCHROEDER

RICE-SCHROEDER

Dan and Joann Rice of Fort Wayne, Ind. announce the engagement of their daughter, Heather, of Farmington Hills to Tim Schroeder, son of John and Kathy Schroeder of Livonia.

Heather is a graduate of the University of Saint Francis in Fort Wayne and is employed as a physical therapist assistant for TRACC in Novi.

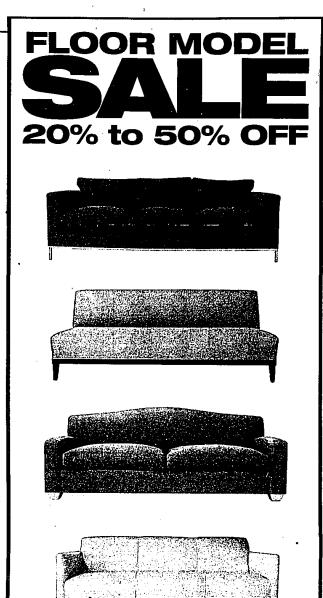

Tim is a student at Schooleraft College in Livonia and is employed as a diesel technician at Bosch in Farmington Hills.

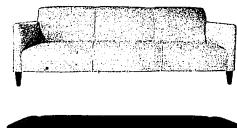

A June 22 wedding is planned in Fort Wayne, Ind.

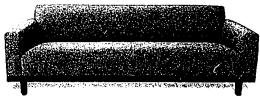

Thursday May 16th to Monday May 27th

808 South Old Woodward Avenue, Birmingham (248) 723-4100 Monday to Wednesday, 10 - 6; Thursday & Friday, 10 - 7; Saturday, 10 - 8; Sunday, 12 - 5

URNITURE то COME