Praise for Mom on her day A Lovely Lady
She is thoughtful, loving and caring
She has no qualms about sharing
Life's struggles and obstacles never cease
Her from living her life to the fullest in peace.

Super Woman
Painting in the living room,
That's what kept her alive,
Without paint,
The full of life body,
Would be a lifeless bag of skin
and blood.

Mom I lo

I love her.
Ask me why.
Because she always loves me.
Because she taught me to walk

Because she taught me to walk when I was three. Because she wakes me when it's light. Because she always cares. Because she always shares. Because she picks me up from

Because she picks me up school.
Because she is very cool.
Because.
Because.
Because. That's why
I love my mom.

A Mother's Love
When entering a room
She fills the air
With so much love and affection
You always know that she cares

For she is my life
Who guides me throughout
Don't know what I would do
If I were without

A bright smile on her face Beautiful sparkle in her eye Love in her heart Sweet as pie

For she is my life
Who guides me throughout
She fills my soul
If I corry a doubt

Feel so safe around her As if covered from the world A million gifts couldn't thank her Sho's a genuine pearl

Laughter so fun
Coffee so strong
Never closes her eyes
Night always tagging along

For she is my life
Who guides me throughout
I hope she knows that I love her
Even when we may shout

I am so lucky
To have a mother like she
For if I never had her
I wouldn't be me

Always sharing joy
Loves to go out and play
I love her with all my hear She deserves every Mother's Day Michelle Meler, Farmington Hills

My Mom

If ave you ever heard of a mom that is aweet?
My mom is, and she can't be beat.
She is loving, caring, and supportive of me,
She is just the best don't you see?
My mom will do anything for my health.
If the weet of the she will be she will be not be sick or hurt. It's everyone else.
She takes care of me na well as my brother,
We both will never get rid of our very own mother.
I don't understand why kids think their mome are cruel,
Maybe it's because they don't have a mom that rules.
The greatest mom in the world would be mino,
She is definitely not a strict as a line.
I does my mom as overy much,

I'm glad that I have a mammy like mine, sure hope that I will have her right up to the day that I die. Michelle Heller, Farmington Hills
