The Marlins, the defending Division I state champions, will attempt to qualify again for the state final Monday in the regional tournament at the Links of Pinewood in Wall Lake.

Rounding out the team standings Tuesday were Birmingham Marian, 391; Dearborn Divine Child, 426; and Ann Arbor Gabriel Richard, 474.

Thomas shot a nine-over 81 in the gusty winds to edge Shirley and Cibario by one stroke.

"Even in the wind, Rachel's drives were long and straight, and her putter worked well," Ladywood coach Kelliann Nagy said. "St. John's was in good shape. It holds the water well. The greens were fast and there were some tough pin placements."

Other Ladywood finishers included freshman Rachel McHenry, sixth, 93; sophomore Lauren Dickerson, seventh, 93; freshman Jenny Kubert, ninth, 95; Erica Jamrog, 101; and Anne Kizer, 103.

"This is the first time we've had four make All-Catholic and the first time in 10 years we've finished second," Nagy said. "It's a great accomplishment for a young team, because we have two freshmen, a sophomore and a junior."

Ladywood returns to action Friday in the Division II regional at Raisin Valley in Tecumseh.

Marian had two All-Catholic players in Julie Kluczynski, who was ninth (95), and Kathleen Schultz, who was 12th (98). Jessica Adams tied for 13th (97) and Kathryn Lucas rounded out the team team with a 103.
