Spartans achieve 3-0 win over Pats

Livonia Stevenson had tradition on its side Thursday in a Division I girls soccer semifinal. The Spartans, perennial state championship contenders, advanced in state tournament play Thursday with a 3-0 victory over upstart Livonia Franklin.

Franklin, enjoying its first winning season in over a decade, bowed out at 11-6 overall.

State-ranked Stevenson, the

SOCCER

Western Lakes Activities Association champion, moved into Saturday's district final at home against Farmington Hills Mercy with a 12-5-1 overall record. (Results will appear in Thursday's Observer.)

Stevenson scored a pair of first-half goals — Jamie Radley from Liz DiPonio and Danielle Lewis (unassisted).

Dina Allie added a second half goal from Lewis.

Stevenson goalkeeper Katherine Koch posted the shutout.

"I thought we controlled play and had several other opportunities, but were unable to convert," said Stevenson coach Chris Finta, whose team beat Franklin on May 1 by an identical 3-0 score.

Franklin second-year coach Jenny Barker was proud of her team's effort.

"I was really impressed the way the girls played the entire game," said the former Stevenson All-State goalkeeper. "Never once did they let down or look rattled. The girls finished the season with a very well-played game against a good opponent."

"It's great to see the entire team work so hard and finish as well as they did."

Wayne 5, Taylor Truman 2: Ashley Britton had a pair of goals, including what proved to be the game-winner with just over nine minutes left in the first half Thursday to give host Wayne Memorial (8-12) the Division I district semifinal victory over Taylor Truman.

Amy Veres contributed a goal and assist for the victorious Zebras, who led 3-2 at halftime. Sara Labrie and Jenny Wroblewski also scored for Wayne.

Adrienne Wilhelm had a pair of first-half goals for the Cougars, who finished third this season in the Mega Conference's Big Division with a 9-3 record.

LADYWOOD 6, REDFORD UNION 8: Katie Rozum's hat trick was more than enough Thursday as host Livonia Ladywood (8-4-5) cruised in a Division II district semifinal against the visiting Panthers.

Other goal scorers for the Panthers, who met North Farmington in Saturday's district final, included Sandy Swish, goalkeeper Stefani Szczeczkowski, Megan Szczyka, Melory Brakes, Christine Williams and Sue Christensen.
