DOUBTING THOMAS

One of the twelve apostles of our Lord was Thomas. As we know, Thomas was not with the other apostles when Jesus first came and stood among them after He arose from the dead. When Thomas heard that our Lord was alive, he would not believe it until he could see the scars on our Lord's hands and put his finger on those scars and his hand in Jesus' side. Later, when Jesus again appeared to His disciples, He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and look at my hands; then, reach out your hand and put it in my side." Thomas then became a believer and replied, "My Lord and my God!" This is a wonderful revelation on faith. Faith is to be sure of the things we hope for, and to be certain of the things we cannot see (Hebrews 11:1). Although Thomas was a good man and was willing to give up his life for our Lord (John 11:16), he was a realist, and his faith was shaken when our Lord was put to death. At times, most everyone will have their faith shaken. When doubt creeps into our hearts, the road for prayer and drawing close to our Father is important. Our Lord told us that He would never leave us or forsake us, and our reply should always be "My Lord and my God."

Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe.
- RSV John 20:29
