

Chalk it up at Heritage's artistic event

As a special activity in recognition of National Parks and Recreation Month, the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services will host the third annual Chalk It Up Contest 6:15-6:45 p.m. Thursday, July 27, at the Heritage Park Amphitheater.

The park is located on Farmington Road between 10 and 11 Mile Roads.

The event is open to individuals, families and teams.

Areas will be designated for participants to use their creativity in developing their masterpiece. The theme for this year's event is "Fun In The Sun."

The event will be followed by a summer concert featuring Jeremy Kittel & Jesse Mason and allow the concert-goers to view the art created by the contest participants.

Pre-registration is required at the Department of Special Services, Costick Center, 28600 11 Mile.

The fee is $5 (same price for individual or team).

For more information on this event, call the Department at (248) 473-1800.

Youth Theater camp offered Aug. 5-16

This summer begins an exciting new series of two-week intensive youth theater workshops for beginning and advanced theater students. The workshops, offered by the City of Farmington Hills Cultural Arts Division, will be held Aug. 5-16 at First Presbyterian Church in Farmington Hills.

Students have a choice of three concentrated workshops. Theater Day Camp for grades 3-12, offers the beginning or advanced student opportunity to be part of a complete musical theater. Advanced Theater Camp is for grades 6-12, is for the more seasoned actor, singer or dancer who has attended other camps and has a fairly good resume going; Voice Camp is for the accomplished vocalists and/or dancers who want to learn more about voice and dance, and practice what they know and learn.

Space is limited. Students may enroll by faxing a registration form to (248) 473-1840 or in person at the Costick Center, 28600 W. 11 Mile. For more information, please call (248) 473-1800.

Permission is required for Voice Camp registration; please call Vocal Instructor, Debbie Tedrick at (248) 253-8843.

Free Alzheimer's Caregiving Seminar

In partnership with Arden Courts of Livonia:
The Alzheimer's Association presents:
"Caring for the Alzheimer's Caregiver"

Guest Speaker Constance Barber

Wednesday, August 7, 2002

1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Constance Barber is the Education and Training Coordinator for the Alzheimer's Association. She has been a caregiver for a loved one with Alzheimer's disease and now is a certified dementia care train-the-trainer. She truly enjoys sharing information to help others cope with the unique daily demands and challenges this disease presents. Now, Constance Barber will join us to discuss tips and techniques to reduce the stress caregivers experience when caring for a loved one with Alzheimer's disease and related dementias.

Join us for this special seminar. Seating is limited, so make your reservation early. Adult day care will be provided by qualified staff. Please ask about this service when making your reservation. Light refreshments will be served.
