

Jaycees plan 9-11 vigil

The Farmington Area Jaycees will be sponsoring a Candlelight Vigil to remember the victims of the tragic events on Sept. 11, 2001.

The vigil will also honor local fire and police departments for the heroic activities they perform every day.

This memorial will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 11 at the Warner Mansion in downtown Farmington.

The goal is to involve not only the members of Farmington Area Jaycees and the general public, but also the members of the police and local fire departments.

Walsh master's programs attracting more students

The Walsh College MBA and the Master of Science in Business Information Technology continue to lead as student preferred programs, according to John Young, vice president for external affairs and marketing at the Troy-based college.

"Summer enrollment in these two programs is up 20 percent and is reflected in the 5 percent increase overall, continuing our growth trend for the 10th consecutive semester," Young said.

Classes began June 27. There's still time to apply for fall admission in person during Walk-In Wednesdays from 8:30 a.m. until 7 p.m., or online at www.walsh-college.edu.

The fall schedule of classes is posted on the Web site and registered for begins July 28.

Walsh College is located on Livonia, between Wattles and Big Beaver. Call (248) 689-8282.
