assistants, John Maley (Livonia) had a goal and an assist, Jordan Collins (Livonia) had three assists and Robert Vulaj had two assists.

Bentley finished with five goals and an assist for the Cats, while Walsh had three goals and an assist. Marc Norrington finished with four assists, while Michael Radakovich (Livonia), Dan Silver (Canton) and Steve Bradzewski had two assists each.

Brian Whetstone (Plymouth) and Lanny Jardine split time in goal for the Lakers; John Picklo and Chad Davis did the same for the Wildcats.

Spartans 5, Whalers 4: The Spartans scored the game's first four goals and never looked back in defeating the Whalers Monday.

The win improved the Spartans' record to 4-2-1, moving them into a tie for second (nine points). The Whalers are 2-5-0 (four points).

Brook Zarem paced the Spartans with two goals and two assists, with Mike Crowley (Canton) getting two goals and an assist and Dale Swins adding four assists. Alex Foster (Canton), Keith Townsend and Scott Marlinga each had a goal and an assist, Eric Strzempek had three assists, and Brent Bortman (Farmington Hills) and Brian Sommerha both scored goals.

John May (Livonia) and James Crank collected a goal and an assist each for the Whalers, with Ryan Anderson assisting on three. Brian Richards and Adam Stoner (Livonia) also scored goals.

Brian Markowicz and Peter Foster (Canton) split time in goal for the Spartans. Kevin Marlowe (Livonia) and Stephen Yu (Garden City) were in the net for the Whalers.

Wolverines 2-4, Bulldogs 9: The Wolverines outscored the Bulldogs 8-4 in the second half of the game Monday to pull away to the win. Four of the Wolves' goals came in the final 3:44 of the third period.

The Wolves are 4-3-0 (eight points); the Bulldogs are 2-4-1 (five points).

Rob Ryan scored five goals for the winners, with Brent Bossey (Livonia) adding three goals and three assists. Nick Anselmi (Canton) had two goals and an assist, Charley Cuffetti (Livonia) had a goal and four assists, Chris Powronik (Redford) got two goals and two assists and Justin Minniti collected three assists. Ian Smith topped the Dogs with four goals and an assist, with Jamie Molen adding a goal and three assists. Todd Keyser had two goals and an assist, Chris Conner (Westland) had three assists, Steve Jacobs (Plymouth) had two assists, and Bill Hodges and Rick Morio each scored goals.

Bobby Fruchnik (Livonia) was in goal for the Wolverines; Ryan Raitburn was in the net for the Bulldogs.

Warriors 2-1, Wildcats 8: Playing two games in two nights is bad enough. When the second of those games is against the unbeaten league leader—that's real trouble. The Wildcats managed to stay ahead of the Warriors for two periods Tuesday, but they couldn't keep the pace in the third as they were outscored 6-2. Tim Hillebrand and Joe Hillebrand each scored twice in the final period for the Warriors as they improved to 7-0-0. The Wildcats, who lost to the Lakers Monday, fell to 3-3-2.

Tim Hillebrand finished with four goals and two assists, while Joe Moreau had a goal and four assists; John Hillebrand totaled two goals and two assists; Chris Morell had a goal and three assists; Matt Van Heest scored two goals; John Perkovich (Canton) and Ryan Yost (Canton) each had three assists; and Mike Ryan had a goal and an assist.

The Wildcats got two goals and an assist from Marc Norrington; two goals from Steve Bradzewski; a goal and two assists from both Todd Bentley and Mike Walsh; three assists from Shaun Davis; and single scores from Bryan Young and Michael Radakovich.

Chris Elliot was in goal for the Warriors. Chad Davis and John Picklo divided time in goal for the Cats.

Huskies 3-7, Falcons 10: Offense rules.

Dwight Heimann scored five goals and assisted on five others—a 17-point game—to help the Huskies improve to 5-3-3, their nine points tying them for second place. The Falcons fell to 1-8-0 (two points).

John Pietila collected two goals and six assists for the Huskies, with Rich Storm adding three goals and two assists; Trent Daavetie and Lars Heimann getting two goals and an assist apiece; Josh Daavetie adding a goal and four assists; Kirk Pietila a goal and two assists; and Tyler Sturos a goal and an assist.

The Falcons were paced by Jason Boudreau and Dennis Cooper, each picking up three goals and three assists. John Tuma got two goals and three assists, Evan Owen had two goals and two assists, Billy Silvan got three assists and Casey Lewis had two.

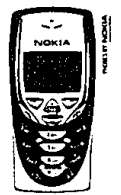

Art Baker was in goal for the Huskies, Brandon Tucker was in the net for the Falcons.
