Spiritual Patriotism

I have good reason to feel patriotic and to be proud to be Americans. But are we not also citizens of the world, and should we not be proud of the accomplishments of humanity as a whole? As Francis Bacon said, "If a man be gracious and courteous to strangers, it shows he is a citizen of the world." Our true country is wider the political borders on a map, and is not only to all of humanity, but to all nation. Isn't our universe awe-inspiring nothing to be proud of? The angels those who have gone before us are fellow citizens in the city of God, and itself is our spiritual leader. Although can't see the borders clearly, the verse is more truly our home than is an area circumscribed by man-made political borders. Therefore, we should be proud and loyal citizens of the universe and trust in its ultimate goodness and benevolence. Cosmic optimism is perhaps the clearest expression that we are patriots for God and that we trust in His wisdom and goodness.
For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city which is to come.
