Spartans 9, Bulldogs 8: The Spartans trailed by two late in the second period, but battled back with four consecutive goals to beat the Bulldogs Thursday at the FTC.

The win improved the Spartans' record to 6-2-1 (13 points), elevating them into second place by themselves. The Bulldogs slipped to 2-6-1 (five points).

Keith Townsend scored four goals for the Spartans, two of them coming in their four-goal surge. Alex Foster (Canton) had two goals and an assist. Nick Smyth chipped in with a goal and three assists. Brian Sommariva scored twice, and both Mike Crowley (Canton) and Derek Schlonsky got two assists.

The Dogs were led by Mark Nagel (Canton) and Ian Smith with two goals and an assist apiece. Chris Conner (Westland) had a goal and two assists. Todd Kestler (Livonia) had two assists, and David Gill (Canton) had a goal and an assist. Nick Merlo and Steve Jacobs (Plymouth) each scored goals.

Brian Markowicz and Peter Foster (Canton) were in goal for the Spartans. Rick Marnon was in the net for the Bulldogs.

Wildcats 19, Broncos 7: The Wildcats are the MSHL's highest scoring team. The Broncos are the league's worst on offense. That explains what happened when the two teams clashed Thursday at the FTC.

Todd Bentley poured in six goals and assisted on five others for the Cats, while Danny Knapp totaled four goals and six assists. Steve Underwood added three goals and four assists. Micah Northington had three goals and three assists. Dan Cook (Livonia) collected six assists. Michael Radakovich (Livonia) got two goals and an assist. Ryan Radakovich (Livonia) had a goal and three assists, and Dan Stiver (Canton) got four assists.

The Broncos got two goals and an assist from both Adam Krug (Livonia) and Rory Casar (Livonia). Pete Mazzoni (Livonia) got four assists and Nathan Jakubowski (Livonia) had two, with James Krygowski (Livonia), Ryan Wischmeyer (Livonia) and Dan Deuby (Livonia) each scored goals.

John Pickett and Chad Davis were in goal for the Cats, who improved to 4-3-2 (10 points). Justin Bolla (Livonia) and David Herrick (Westland) were in the net for the Broncos, now at 1-7-0 (two points).

Spartans 12, Falcons 9: The Spartans had a 10-4 lead early in the second period, but had to withstand a furious comeback attempt by the last-place Falcons to get the victory Wednesday at the FTC. The Falcons slipped to 1-7-0 (two points).

Alex Foster (Canton), Nick Smyth and Keith Townsend collected two goals and two assists apiece to boost the Spartans' effort. Brent Bortman (Farmington Hills) had a goal and three assists. Scott Marlinga scored two goals. Brad Zarem had a goal and two assists. Mike Crowley (Canton) had a goal and an assist. Derek Schlonsky assisted on two and Brian Bortman (Farmington Hills) scored one.

Nearly all the Falcons' scoring came from three players: Nick Lang (Livonia) totaled three goals and four assists. Brent Cooper had two goals and five assists and Jason Bloomingburg finished with three goals and two assists. Alex Spezia (Farmington Hills) added a goal and an assist.

With Foster, Townsend and Marlinga each scoring twice, the Spartans were able to build their 10-4 lead with 10:56 left in the second period. The Falcons rallied, narrowing the gap to 10-8 before the third period was half over, but Spartan goals by Zarem and Smyth secured the Spartan win. Lang scored the last three Falcon goals.

Peter Foster (Canton) and Brian Markowicz split time in goal for the Spartans. Joe Rutherford was in the net for the Falcons.

Huskies 12, Broncos 2: The Huskies kept pace with the Spartans, thanks to hattricks by Dwight Helminen and Kurt Kivisto, in an MSHL game Wednesday at the Farmington Training Center. The second-place Huskies improved to 4-1-3 (11 points).

When Sean Burke (Livonia) scored 155 into the second period, the Broncos were within a goal of the Huskies. But they didn't score again, while the Huskies put nine more goals on the board.

Helminen added two assists to his three-goal performance. John Pietila had two goals and an assist. Tim Kastanen collected a goal and two assists. Mark Pietila and Rich Storm each had a goal and an assist. Trent Daavettilla had three assists. Lars Helminen and Ted Sturos each had two assists and Aaron Kullonen scored a goal.

Adam Krug (Livonia) also scored a goal for the Broncos.

Art Baker (Canton) was in goal for the Huskies. David Herrick (Westland) and Justin Bolla (Livonia) divided time in goal for the Broncos.

Whalers 7, Wolverines 4: A five-goal second period gave the Whalers a four-goal lead and enabled them to defeat the Wolverines Wednesday at the FTC.

Ryan Anderson's two goals and an assist and four assists from Doug Stomback paced the Whalers, who improved to 3-5-0 (six points). The Wolverines fell to 4-4-0 (eight points).

John May (Livonia) added a goal and an assist for the Whalers. Chris Falbanks had two assists and Brian Richards, Matt Gulibault (Livonia), Nick Duff and Jeremy Majsak (Canton) each scored goals.

The Wolves got a goal and two assists from Justin Minini, a goal and an assist from both Rob Ryan and Brent Bessey (Livonia), and a goal from Chris Powroznic (Redford).

Both teams' goals were solid in this game. Stephen Yu (Garden City) backstopped the Whalers' effort, while Bobby Pruchnik (Livonia) was in the net for the Wolverines, stopping a penalty shot.

Diamonds sweep softball twin-bill

The Farmington Hills Diamonds swept a softball doubleheader from the Farmington Flash Thursday, 7-1 and 18-7. Both games lasted only five innings due to a time limit.

Diamonds pitcher Both Danielleweicz scattered five hits, struck out 10 and issued no walks in the first game.

Amy Berke led an 11-hit offensive output by the Diamonds' with three. She also knocked in a run and scored a run.

Lindsay Smith, Jessica Gold and Brynn Allen added two hits apiece. Smith chipped in two RBI, and Gold scored two runs. Danielleweicz and Kristin McCrean had RBI singles.

In the second game, the Flash scored seven runs in the top half of the first inning, but winning pitcher Rachel Abruzzo held Farmington scoreless after that.

"I thought we were in trouble, but the girls really hit the ball," Diamonds coach Marty Gold said.

The Diamonds supported Abruzzo with 14 hits, which included three apiece by Allison and McCrean, both of whom scored three runs, too. One of McCrean's hits was a two-run triple; she had a total of four RBI.

Berke had two hits, including a double, and two RBI. Suzanne Johns scored two runs and had three RBI on a groundout, a walk and a single.

Sam Gurwin, who also scored two runs, and Mary Brady connected for RBI singles. Jessica Gold and Abruzzo, who scattered eight hits, walked four and fanned three, added two RBI each.

The Diamonds, who lead the Girls Incredible Fastpitch Softball League North Division with an 11-1-1 record, have a bye Tuesday but play a doubleheader against the second-place Northville Broncos 6 p.m. Thursday at North Farmington High School. The league all-star game will be Saturday, July 27.
