TOO LONG A REACH.

It was a Welsh minister who described the devil to a little congregation in a remote Welsh valley. Said the minister: "The devil is bound round the middle with chains, and round the arms with chains, and round the legs with chains. But John Jones," pointing to a man in the front row, "he can reach you; and you, David Evans," pointing to one in the middle row, "he can reach you," and pointing to one at the back, "John Williams, he can reach you." And then a man in the gallery called out, "Why, the thing might as well be loose." and round the arms with chains, and
