Infielders Jordan Balbes, Bresso, Feldman, Kozlowski and Mark Whitehead handled every chance flawlessly.

Conrad added two more hits and Bresso and Kozlowski each belted extra-base hits in a five-run fifth inning.

In the semifinal game Sunday, the Cobras defeated Swartz Creek, 13-8. After a slow start in 35-degree heat, NFWB erased a five-run deficit with four runs in the fourth, two in the fifth and seven in the last inning.

Kozlowski sparked the fireworks with two home runs. Goldfarb and Andrew Sharp also blasted round-trippers and scored two runs each.

Kaberline and Kearfott added two hits apiece during the 14-hit onslaught. Kozlowski earned the win in relief.

In the championship game, the Cobras faced a 2-1 deficit after four innings, but they took the lead with five runs in the fifth and added three more in the sixth.

All nine NFWB runs were scored by the bottom half of the batting order. Balbes, who started both rallies, Conrad and Goldfarb scored two runs each. Feldman, Sharp and Whitehead had two hits each.

Conrad pitched one inning of scoreless relief and picked up the win. Kearfott pitched the last two innings and got the save as the Cobras prevailed over the Stallions.

Bresso, Conrad, Kaberline, Kearfott and Kozlowski hit over 400 for the tournament. Kearfott and Bresso led the way with eight and seven hits, respectively. Conrad, Goldfarb and Kaberline topped .600 in on-base percentage.

third period, scoring three consecutive goals for the Lakers. He also assisted on two others in the game, while Redford's Chris Powrozniak added three goals and one assist for the Wolverines.

Lakers 12 Broncos 2: The night before their win over the Wolverines, the Lakers had little trouble in disposing of the Broncos Sunday night with a 12-2 triumph.

Ryan Wischmeyer and James Krygowski (both of Livonia Churchill) scored the Broncos' goals in the game, coming in the first and second periods respectively.

The Lakers had balanced scoring, with seven different players picking up the team's 12 goals. Marshall had a goal and an assist for the Lakers.

Huskies 11 Warriors 5: A 7-1 advantage in the third period proved to be the difference in the Huskies coming from behind to pick up an 11-5 win over the Warriors.

The two teams entered the third period tied up at 4, but five goals from four different players on the Huskies put the game out of doubt.

Howell's Trent Daavettia had three goals and four assists to lead all offensive players in the game.

Whalers 14 Bulldogs 6: Once again, a third-period outburst was the key to a victory, as the Whalers outscored the Bulldogs 8-2 in the third period of Sunday's 14-6 victory.

John May (Livonia) scored three times and assisted on three others for the Whalers. Canton's Jeremy Majszak also scored once and picked up an assist for the winning team.

Canton's David Gill assisted on two early goals to help the Bulldogs out to an early 3-1 lead before the Whalers rallied.

winning pitcher D.J. Kelly singled to make it a 4-2 NFWB lead. Four more runs would score, on a hit batter, wild pitch and two-out double to right by Jake Wilson.

But the Cobras came right back with a four-run outburst in the bottom of the fifth to reclaim the lead.

Kozlowski's single made it 6-5 Rochester before Andrew Sharp grounded a two-run single into center field. Capping off the frame was Jake Feldman's RBI double to left-center, lifting NFWB to an 8-6 lead.

Not to be denied were the Razors, however, scoring seven more runs in the top of the sixth. Jason Kiefer, John Reitman, Wilson and Josh Cannon brought home single runs before Altern scored three more with a double down the left field line.

According to coach Sharp, the Cobras have shown they can compete against tough teams. He cited the first-year travel squad's championship at the June 21-23 Flushing (MI) Invitational and third-place finish at the recent Clio tournament.

"But it's a matter of getting rid of those one or two bad innings," said Sharp, noting how his team lost to the Razors.

Final results of the eighth annual Summer Classic tournament were not yet available. But approximately 100 teams in different age brackets (8-to-18) competed at Drake Sports Park, Founders Field and Pioneer Park in Farmington Hills and four high schools including West Bloomfield, Orchard Lake St. Mary's, Harrison and North Farmington.

Winners automatically qualify for the United States Specialty Sports Association World Series.
