Find vacation tips at Nomads Fair

Looking for information about air travel and vacations? Head to the 2002 Nomads Travel Fair 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 18, at the Nomads World Terminal, Detroit Metro Airport, 10100 Middlebelt.

The event is free and open to the public. Parking also is free.

Tour operators and travel services will be on hand with exhibits. Visitors will receive free expert travel recommendations, practical demonstrations of interest to air travelers, and other useful information. Visitors can get the latest word on travel medicine, security and travel safety, and how to discover information on their own from professional librarians and researchers. U.S. passport and international drivers license applications and free passport and license photos will be available.

The Flying Clubhouse, the Nomads' Boeing 727-200 Advanced Tri-Jet aircraft, will be open for visitors, with captains and flight crew onboard to answer questions and talk about Nomads. The ground crew also will stand by to discuss the maintenance and modifications to their club's aircraft, from new engines, avionics, and safety upgrades to the reconfiguration of the cabin from 186 to 156 passengers, which provides more comfort and legroom for passengers.
