Robbery suspect charged

A 37-year-old Northville Township resident is in custody who may be responsible for nine area bank robberies, including two Comerica banks in Farmington Hills and three drug store robberies.

Farmington Hills Police Chief William Dwyer said he believes drug addiction may have been the motive for the robberies.

Kevin R. Kolb was arraigned in U.S. Federal District Court Friday on one charge of bank robbery in Livonia.

Dwyer said the media's heavy news coverage tipped police off to the man, who was arrested at a Canton Township Super 8 motel.

The other cities that may have had related robberies include Livonia and Taylor, and the townships of Northville, South Lyon, Brownstown, Canton and Plymouth.
