

History's mysteries

"Inspector Pastways" (aka Brian Golden) lead students from St. Fabian parochial school through the Quaker Cemetery last week, as part of a unit on local history. Anne Langan was among those who got a close-up look at the stones marking the graves of Farmington founders. Golden and fellow Blue Circle members will host a "Cemetery Walk" this Saturday, starting at 1 p.m. Visitors will learn about local history and create tombstone rubbings; cider and donuts will be served. Sign up sheets are available at Books Abound on Grand River in downtown Farmington, or call 248-476-8323 for reservation information.
