The team title should be up for grabs this weekend in Midland, according to Stocker.
"Hopefully, we'll be in the top five, because we have some solid flights, he said.

"What's going to determine the winner this year is the draw, because there's so much balance amongst the teams. I would say it's pretty much wide

Were getting better every week. We've been practicing indoors most of the season. It looks like we could have inclement weather up at state, so that should help us tremendously."

Stocker added the Marlins could finish anywhere from first to seventh.
"That's how competitive and balanced it is," he added.
