Power run

Over 75 students, parents, and teachers joined the Power Middle School cross-country team in running to raise $175.75 for Pediatric Leukemia research on Oct. 16. Jim Ragland, cross-country coach, pointed out that in the past three years, Power students have raised almost $6,000 from this annual event to help other children. The Leukemia Research, Life, Inc. began in 1981, and has been raising money to fund research for pediatric cancers at Children's Hospital of Michigan. Cancer is the number-one killer disease of children under the age of 15 in the U.S. Ninety-six cents of every dollar Leukemia Research, Life, Inc. raises enables life saving pediatric cancer research at Children's Hospital of Michigan.
