The State Fair

An unusually interesting and thrilling display of fireworks has just been arranged for the Michigan state fair | Sept. 16 to 21 next The production entitled "The Fall of Old Mexico" will be staged in front of the grand stand every night. This consists of a panorama of the City of Mexico, with the Fort of Chahultopec in the fore ground and Mount Popocatapol in the background. For about 20 minutes previous to the start of the fireworks the people of Mexico will be shown in their native amusements and costumes. The city will be dressed in gala attire and many games will be seen including a bull fight in miniature. The ani mated picture is 350 feet in length and 10,000 yards of canvas is used, painted in oil and correct in every way. Suddenly the assemblage is thrown into the highest state of the best ever seen in Detroit.

Sixty fireworks numbers follow,

Battle of the Skies" concludes the hour program during which a huge oomb strikes one of the aerial craft and explodes, tearing it to pieces.
