Lee choir to perform at Harvest Church

The Lee University Campus Choir from Cleveland, Tenn., will be appearing in concert at 7 p.m. Thursday, March 13 at Harvest Ministries Church in Farmington Hills.
The choir has sung throughout much of the United States, in churches, youth meetings, and conventions of both regional and national scope.
In May of 1993, the choir traveled to Sofia, Bulgaria, where they presented a concert with the National Radio and Television Orchestra of Bulgaria and special guest, Phil Driscoll.
In 1995, the choir traveled to the island nation of Jamaica for evangelistic crusades with Alvin Slaughter. In the spring of 2002, they traveled to Ireland, Wales, and England, singing at the great wells of revival in those countries.
The public is invited to attend. For more information call Pastor David Hutton at (248) 478-1511 or visit the Web site at www.harvestministries.org.

Jazz quartet to perform

If the great sounds of Benny Goodman make you smile, or you just can't get enough of the big-band jazz and Dixieland music of years gone by, then Nardin Park United Methodist Church in Farmington Hills is the place to be at 2 p.m. Sunday, March 9.
Clarinetist David Bennett will perform with his quartet, to benefit Nardin Park's New Generation Youth Choir.

Goodman

Tickets are available by calling the church at (248) 476-8860. The cost is $15 for adults and $10 for seniors and students. The price also includes snacks and desserts served at the 30 minute intermission.
Nardin Park is located at 29887 W. 11 Mile Road, just west of Middlebelt.
