The Good News

The Easter message is the core of the Gospel. The good news of Christianity is that death is not the last word, but rather a transition to our true home with God. Death may seem invincible; after all, each of us will die, having little control over the details of when, where and how we will die. On the surface, death looks both inescapable and permanent. However, we should not be fooled by the external appearance of death. For death affects only our bodies. At the core of our being is our immaterial soul, the eternal spirit which we share with our Heavenly Father. Although we tend to identify ourselves with our earthly bodies, the Easter message reminds us that this is a mistake. Our physical bodies are nothing more than transient shadows and not our true selves. Easter is a celebration of our true selves, our eternal souls. The Bible tells us: "The Good News was promised long ago by God through His prophets... It is about His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ as in His humanity, He was born descendant of David, as His divine holiness. He was shown with great power to be the Son of God by being raised from death." (Ephesians 1:2-4)

And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of My hand.
John 10:28
