

Workshops on loss of mother set Farmington HS students learn lesson about personal finance

Arbor Hospice & Home Care will present three free workshops designed for women who have lost their mothers beginning May 4, 2003. These highly anticipated workshops entitled, The Memory in the Mirror: Daughters Reflecting on Motherhood, help women who have lost their mothers, focus on ways to make them part of the legacy they create in their own lives.

"While the loss of a loved one is unique and its impact immeasurable, we recognize that the loss of a mother forever changes each woman's life, yet the bond remains," stated Jacquelyn Glatfelter, director of Grief Support Services for Arbor Hospice & Home Care. "Whether the loss was last year or 25 years ago, this workshop has proven to be a source of great strength and support for women of all ages." Due to the overwhelming response generated from last year's workshop, programs have been scheduled for Ann Arbor, Northville and Allen Park again this year.

The Memory in the Mirror: Daughters Reflecting on Motherhood, is one of many bereavement programs offered by Arbor Hospice & Home Care to guide individuals and their families through the healing process after losing a loved one. Launched in 2001, The Memory in the Mirror has touched the lives of hundreds of women and their families. During the workshop, participants will share experiences and reflect as to how motherhood has impacted their lives. The program will also acknowledge the psychological and spiritual relationship women have with their mothers - focusing less on the mother's death and more on the opportunity that women have to get to know her in a new way, looking beyond the mother to find the women.

Workshop participants are encouraged to bring with them a tangible expression of their mother (a photograph, trinket, or something she created).

The workshop will be presented at each of the following three locations: 2-3:30 p.m. Sunday, May 4, at Ward Church, 40000 Six Mile Road, Northville Township; 7-8:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 6, at Arbor Hospice Residence, 23608 Oak Valley Drive, Ann Arbor; and 7-8:30 p.m. Thursday, May 8, at St. Francis Catholic Parish, 9000 Laurence, Allen Park.

The workshops are open to all members of the community and are free of charge. Space is limited to 60 attendees per location. To register for the series or for further information, please contact Arbor Hospice & Home Care at (734) 662-5899, ext. 113 or register on-line at www.arborthospice.org.

State Rep. Aldo Vagnotti, D-Farmington, spent part of the legislative spring break back in school April 16, co-presenting personal finance curriculum with a representative from LOC Federal Credit Union at Farmington High School - one of several schools being visited this week by lawmakers and credit union volunteers during Michigan Credit Union Youth Week. "Providing the knowledge and skills to ensure sound financial decision-making is one of the greatest gifts we, as adults, can give our young people," Vagnotti said.

"Recent surveys and polls show many young people today lack basic financial knowledge," Vagnotti added. "Michigan's credit unions are helping change that."

Michigan Credit Union League (MCUL) is a statewide trade association.

"There is a crisis in financial education in our country and a need for leadership in combating it," said David Adams, president and chief executive officer for the Michigan Credit Union League (MCUL). "Credit unions are ideally positioned to respond because we have always believed in the power of education and information put to practical use."

The presenters will employ the National Endowment for Financial Education High School Financial Planning Program.

"These programs are effective in changing youths' attitudes, behaviors, and self-confidence about money," said Bernice Brandon of LOC Federal Credit Union in Farmington. "Every student in Michigan should have the opportunity to learn these critical life skills."

Organized in 1934, the Michigan Credit Union League (MCUL) is a statewide trade association representing Michigan credit unions. Based in Northville Township with a satellite office in Lansing, the MCUL offers credit unions assistance in the areas of regulatory compliance, legislative advocacy, media advocacy and operational information.

DNR, locals to meet on park farm

Department of Natural Resources Director K.L. Cool, staffers from the DNR Parks Bureau and local stakeholder groups will meet from 10:30-11:30 a.m. Saturday to discuss the future of Maybury State Park's living farm.

The meeting takes place at Gnatliff's Hole in the Wall Restaurant, 108 E. Main in Northville.

Following a Feb. 12 fire which destroyed the barn at Maybury State Park's living farm, DNR officials received considerable indications of public support from residents throughout Michigan to rebuild the site, officials said.

The DNR has no funds for such a reconstruction, but has been approached by the Northville Community Foundation with an offer to establish a management partnership, similar in concept to the many state-local partnerships used to manage light-houses along Michigan's coastal shorelines.

The Northville Community Foundation has established an endowment fund to raise money for rebuilding and managing the facility.

Cool will provide an overview of the farm's past, update residents on the present situation, and field questions, comments, ideas and concerns about the future of the site.
