North's Danielewicz pitches gems in pair of league wins

Observer & Eccentric | Sunday, May 11, 2003

Having a great pitcher in soft-ball is like having a great goal-tender in hockey. It's not just an equalizer, but can be a dilference maker. And North Farmington's softball team is a prime example. Thanks to the near-flawless

Thanks to the near-flawless pitching from senior Beth Danielewicz, the Raiders picked participation from senior Beth Danielewicz, the Raiders picked up a pair of tightly played 1-0 wins over Clarkston and Luke Orion last week. North was tied with Clarkston 5-5 in the bottom of the seventh in the second game of its doubleheader Wednesday, before the game was called due to darkness. The constst will be finished up Thursday when the Wolves visit North. Danielewicz, was nearly unhiti-table in the team's single game against the Dragons Thursday. She allowed just four hits — none of which left the infield—and struck out 14 batters. That game followed an even better outing against Clarkston, who was coming off list first-ever victory in the prestigious North Star Tournment last weckend. Danielewicz threw a one-hit shutont, striking out 11. North coach Dave Brubaker said there was no way to overestimate Danielewicz's importance to the team's success this season.

"We'd have about three wins without her," Brubaker said.

"We're playing in the toughest division in the state, and if you don't have a top-flight pitcher, you're going to struggle.

Against Lake Orion, Suzanne Joins drave in the team's lone rum, bringing hume Katie Bolen in the fifth innine.

Clarkston pitching nearly matched North's in their contest. The Katiders managed just two base hits, but both lead to the only run of the game.

Laurie Thipper's single with two outs in the third inning scored Johns, who reached base on an error.

In the unfinished contest, the Wolves jumped out to a 5-0 lead after five innings, but the Raiders affised from the first of the third in the sixth to the the game 5-5.

The Raiders are now 9-4 overall and 6-2 in the Oakland Activities Association Division I.
