Farmington fares well despite setback LACROSSE two goals apiece; Zack Thompson and Tosoian, who figured prominently in the seoring again with six assists, added one each. "Our defense has stepped up, and our attack is really scoring a lot of goals," Fillion said. The combination of those two is spectacular, and we seem to have plenty of depth in our midfield lines. These guys have put in a lot of hard work, and they play with such class. They rally together to make things happen. That makes the difference hetween winning and losing. Farmington begins post-season play this week in the Class A state tournament We're going into the postseason with guys who are leadthy, guys who have stepped up to the plate this year, Fillion said. Hopefully, that sets us up for a fantattic post-season."

Despite having a setback Friday night, it's been a good year overall for the Farmington United boys lacrosse team. In its fourth year as a varsity program, Farmington is beginning to reap the fruits of its labor and sported as 8-3 record prior to playing again Saturday. Farmington had a four-game winning atteaks snapped Friday in a 7-6 loss to visiting Grosse Pointe South. The Blues Devils enjoyed a 5-thalffune lead, but Farmington rallied in the second half and make a good game of it. South led the entire game, but Farmington refused to fold. "We kept fighting back; we dominated the second half." United coach John Fillion said. 'It was a whole lot of effort, just a little too late.

"We turned up the heat more.

with 18:02 remaining in the game. She was running from the left wing when Kristina Navas put a long restart on the foot of Munaco, who 'basically walked in all alone," according to Russell.

"We were sloppy for a large part of the game," he added.

"We wanted to possess a little more, but we did it enough.
Harrison came hard at our possession game and made it diffisession game and made turnic cult to possess. "One thing we did do that we weren't early in the season was working hard and getting bounces. We're going at teams constantly and creating chances, and they're coming our way.

The Raiders are 7-1-4 in the Oakland Activities Association Division III (second place behind Stoney Creek) and 9-2-4 overall. The Hawks are 4-5-3 and 5-5-4, respectively. Boothroyd and Lynch were just rock solid in the middle and didn't allow the Hawks to build up any kind of offensive attack, according to Russell. Axis Kaplan, Adrienne Sundquist, Nawas and Amanda O'Steen were defensive standouts as the Raiders posted their eighth shutout, he added.

Bridgette earned it with a cuple decent awer, he said. Most were right at her; she didn't have to do a lot of diving.
