Marissa Martiny was 2-for-2 with a pair of stolen bases and scored two runs in the opener. Melissa Patterson and Allison Kahrmoff were 2-for-3 with one double each. Patterson scored a run and Kahrmoff had an RBI.

Amanda Mergener knocked in three runs - two with a single and the other on a sacrifice fly.

In the second game, Patterson was 3-for-3 with a pair of two-run doubles. She had four RBI and scored two runs.

Mergener was 3-for-4 with an RBI double and also scored a pair of runs. Adrienne Shaw had two hits and two RBI. Kahrmoff added an RBI single, and Catherine Shaw drove in a run with a sacrifice fly.

Hawks rebound

After taking a pair of tough losses to Rochester, Harrison's softball team bounced back for a wild win over Auburn Hills Avondale Thursday.

Thanks to a seventh-inning rally, the Hawks pulled out a 7-1 win over the Yellow Jackets. The win improves Harrison to 19-16 overall and 12-9 in the OAA Division II.

Harrison held a 6-1 lead going into the top of the seventh inning. But the Jackets exploded to tie the game at 6-6.

After suffering close losses to the Falcons a day earlier, it seemed as if the Hawks were doomed to another unfortunate loss.

Then, Katie Ross stepped in. She drilled a hit that turned into a game-winning home run to give the Hawks the win. "It's exciting to win a game like that," said Harrison coach Cassidy Menger. The ball she hit just kept rolling and rolling. It was nice to win, because we were way ahead most of the game, and were disappointed with how we did the day before."

Senior Beth Leeb, playing in her final home game, was the winning pitcher on the mound, with a pair of strikeouts. She also drove in two runs. Senior Abby Cleeland went 2-for-3, and Karen Ternas had three hits and 2 RBI.

Wednesday, the Hawks suffered losses of 3-2 and 3-1 to Rochester.

Raiders take 2 of 3

With the bad early-season weather and long spring break, games are sometimes left unfinished. North Farmington finished off a classic extra-inning contest Thursday with the Troy Colts.

Thanks to some generous defensive play, the Raiders completed a 4-1 win over Troy in a game scheduled on April 30 that was never completed.

Bunt singles by Brynn Allen and Lindsay Smith loaded the bases in the team's game-winning rally. Two runs followed on an error and a third scored on a passed ball. All this came after North tied the game 1-1 on an RBI single by Jehan Hendo in the top of the seventh.

Senior pitcher Beth Danielewicz pitched all 10 innings in the split game, striking out an amazing 21 batters while allowing just six hits.

According to coach Dave Brubaker, Danielewicz has fanned 192 batters in 115 innings of work this season, some of that coming since suffering a bruised forearm during the North Star Tournament earlier this month.

"We're going to hold her out of some games, and I think our record will suffer for it," Brubaker said. "But we're forsaking winning the league for hopefully having her healthier down the road."

Troy and North played a full scheduled game, won 10-0 by the Colts in five innings. The Raiders managed just five hits against the leading team in the OAA Division I.

The team is now 10-7 in league play.

Freshman Monica Hayworth was the winning pitcher Wednesday in visiting North Farmington's 4-1 win over West Bloomfield.

Hayworth held the Lakers to five hits; she walked five and struck out one.

Amy Berke and Lori Tapper were 2-for-4 and scored a run apiece. Tapper hit a triple and had an RBI.

Danielewicz and Hendo doubled and scored one run each, and Hayworth helped her cause with a hit and an RBI.

Trojans win close one

Adrian Stewart's game-winning RBI single scored winning pitcher Marissa Martin as Livonia Clarenceville (8-13, 7-8) held on for the 7-6 Metro Conference victory over the visiting Cosmos (1-14 Metro).

Martin worked the final 2.2 innings of relief after coming on for starter Emily Collins, who went the first 4.1 innings.

Whitney Kubera had two hits in four trips, knocked in a pair of runs and scored a run for the victorious Trojans. Martin was 2-for-2, while Collins went 2-for-4 and scored twice.
