Allison Lyon and Ashley Kandt scored two goals apiece for Farmington. Britanni Kokko and Bethany Rattai had one each. Kandt also had an assist, as did Kristie Boskey.

Farmington scored the first goal, but Powers responded with the next six in a row. United cut the deficit to 6-3 at halftime and then 6-5 in the second half; however, the Chargers produced three more goals to clinch the victory.

"It was typical for our girls to adjust to that type of play," Mehall said. "We adjusted, but the quick six goals at the front end was a little too much to overcome.

"It was important for the Farmington girls to be able to come back from a 6-1 deficit. They showed a lot of character and I'm proud of them. They did a great job coming back. We just didn't have enough shots on goal to follow through."

Farmington loses 11 seniors but will have most of its offensive players back next season, as well as some key defenders.

"We have some good JV players who will be able to fill in some spots," Mehall said. "I know we'll be competitive. Hopefully, we'll get back to the championship game and win next time."

win over the Spartans.

Stevenson had just three base-runners, two because of infield errors. After the Spartans left two stranded in the second inning, Frantz retired the last 15 batters in a row.

"It sure makes a coach look good when you have Dana on the mound," Falvo said. "What a great performance today. Fourteen innings and one hit. That's fantastic."

Frantz pitched a one-hitter as Mercy defeated Farmington Harrison in a semifinal game earlier Monday, 3-0. Stevenson merited Farmington after six innings in the other semi, 12-1.

"She was moving the ball around well and did a nice job of

"We were going against schools that have been there many times," Badynee said. "I was surprised we won as many matches as we did, being there for the first time."

"I was so happy for the guys. One of them said, 'You know, coach, deep down I didn't think it would be possible, but I left the tournament feeling like we did deserve to be there.'" keeping us off balance."

Stevenson coach Rob Witherspoon said of Frantz.

"It's going to take more time seeing a pitcher like that, and they don't come around too often."

"We knew she was a tough pitcher, but we thought we were up to the challenge. We improved a ton since the start of the season."

Mercy (26-2) advances to the regional tournament Saturday at Allen Park to play Detroit Redford. Garden City plays Allen Park in the other game. Stevenson ends the season 14-16.

The Marlins had seven hits off Stevenson pitcher Julia Vecchioni, who went the distance. She struck out two, walked five and hit one batter.

"Anytime you can tie North Farmington in a tournament, that's pretty darn good."

North's Mike Kaufman and Nick Ludwig had 2-1 records at Nos. 1 and 3 singles, respectively.

Ludwig reached the semifinals before losing to top-seeded Mike Rose of Forest Hills Central. Kaufman made it to the quarterfinal round.

Dan Carlsson and Dan Levy who had a second RBI.

"We scored 10 and didn't give up a run; I'd say that's a pretty good performance," Falvo said.

"Generally speaking, if we can get four runs with Dana pitching, we're confident we can eke out a win."

MERCY'S HARRISON & Dana Frantz pitched a one-hitter in a district tournament semifinal game Tuesday at Mercy. She struck out 12, hit one batter and didn't walk any.

The Marlins got a run in the third inning when Erin Agemy reached on an error, moved up on a balk and a sacrifice and scored on Anna Schneider's sacrifice fly.

Mercy added two in the fifth. Tammi Karagiosian hit a leadoff double and scored on a single by Schneider, who scored on Carly Tracey's sacrifice fly.

Karagiosian had two of Mercy's six hits off Harrison pitcher Stephanie Levy, who didn't walk a batter either.

Caitlin Tracey had the lone hit for the Marlins. Stevenson 12, FARMINGTON 1; Julia Vecchioni pitched a two-hitter for the Spartans, who scored five runs in the sixth inning to mercy the Falcons in a district tournament game Tuesday.

Vecchioni, who struck out four and walked one, helped her cause with two hits and also had three RBIs.

Kim Marshick, who had a double and knocked in two runs, and Kristin Hutchins contributed two hits each. Amanda Alpert scored twice.

Lavren Pachuta had both Farmington hits.
