

Borders open late for new Harry Potter book

On Friday, June 20, the Farmington Hills Borders will be among stores across the country to stay open late to celebrate the latest J.K. Rowling release, "Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix."

Each store will begin selling the fifth Harry Potter book just after midnight, June 21, which is the book's official release date.

Wizards and muggles are invited to dress up as their favorite Harry Potter character, or in their favorite house colors, and join the festivities beginning at 10:00 p.m.

They will be greeted at the door and asked to prove if they are a wizard or a muggle by naming the four houses of the Hogwarts School of Wizardry.

A magical wizard candy will be awarded to wizards and a mundane muggle sucker will be awarded to muggles.

"The students can peruse the Borders' stations for a variety of subjects, like Hogwarts' Culinary Arts - "Creepy Caklron Cuisine" and Hogwarts' Magic Class - "The Making of the Magical Wand."

Farmington Hills Borders is located at 10000 p.m. between 13 and 14 Mile Roads.

Special Olympics needs volunteers for tourney

Team Farmington will host the 10th annual softball tournament Saturday June 21 at Drake Park.

Games will start at 8:30 a.m. and run until 4 p.m.

"We are expecting between 24-28 teams which will include approximately 400 athletes and 100 coaches/chaperones from throughout the state," said Ted Stern, the event organizer.

All teams will play at least two games and some will play three, Stern said.

"We have current members of the Farmington Public Safety Department who help every year with umpiring and score keeping, and one retired member," Stern said.

Current members are Bob Schultz, Terry Purves and Dan Potter. Hilton (Zeke) Hyde is the retired officer.

"This is a very important tournament for the teams as they prepare for the state tournament to be held at Canton Softball Center on July 19-19," Stern said.

The group is looking for more volunteers. To help, call (248) 476-8119.
