HUDSON PLANS TO SPEND MILLION IN NEWSPAPERS IN NEXT TWO MONTHS

The Hudson Motor Car Company, manufacturers of Hudson and Essex cars, will spend one million dollars in newspaper advertising during the months of March and April, it is announced by Courtney Johnson, general sales manager of the company.

Hudson, largest manufacturer of six cylinder cars in 1928, is experiencing the greatest year in its history and this extensive campaign, the largest ever undertaken by the company, is designed to bring about even greater success to a sensational successful line.

"The feature of the campaign will be a national 'Essex Chalenge Week' which commences March 4th. During the week Essex cars will undertake every kind of test to prove their right to the militant 'Challenge' slogan, says the announcement.

HINTS FOR LEGISLATORS

The Legislature is in the midst of its deliberations with a record of having used enough hot air to keep eleven of the largest counties in the upper peninsula at summer temperature, with enough left over to heat Detroit and Grand Rapids.

Up until the present time it has been word-word-words, with nothing much in the way of legislation, which after all may not be a calamity. Michigan now has about all the laws of which any state should stand possessed, and with a view to helping out the legislators we might say the state at this time is not in need of legislation which—

Regulates the hours canary may sing;
Regulates the hours between darkness and dawn when fish worms may be taken with spears; Makes it a felony for men to wear red bathing suits on any highway in the state;

Makes it a misdemeanor for a husband to sass his mother-in-law, or wife ditto;
Makes it a felony to scent handkerchiefs with pre-war bourbon;

Makes it a misdemeanor to hit the man with a wrench who greets you with a slap between the shoulder-blades;
Makes it a felony for women to talk about their operations at a bridge game;

Makes it less majestic for a newspaper to poke fun at dam-phool legislation.

And lastly, 10,000 new laws will be about enough for this session.

And don't forget that the majority of the folks are pleased when the session begins, and are delighted when it adjourns sine die. —Michigan Bulletin.
